Important information for the family:

1. Kriah - "tearing of the garments" which is done at the chapel [On Chol Hamoed only sons and daughters tear. The others do it on Motzoei Yomtov]:
 - a. Some people think that it is an honor for the deceased to tear the best clothing they own. WRONG: they tear something that they are going to discard anyway after Shiva.
 - b. Men – Sons: will tear a Jacket and a shirt. All other men: only a Jacket.
 - c. Women: All women will tear only one garment. Suggestion: wear a shell or a tee-shirt underneath (for Tznius) and tear a blouse or over-shirt or sweater. Do not use a knit material for Kriah as it unravels.
2. Shiva Shoes: At the cemetery, after the burial, the mourners change into the "shiva shoes". Therefore, one family member should have a bag with all the Shiva shoes and bring it to the cemetery. (Besides for Chol Hamoed, Purim, Shushan Purim and Erev Pesach in the afternoon in which you do not change into shiva shoes at the cemetery). If one doesn't have Shiva shoes, they may be purchased before the funeral.
3. Checks: 1. Chevra Kadisha, 2. Funeral home, 3. Cemetery. (4. Officiating Rabbi?). Be at the chapel: 45 minutes prior to schedule. Example: If scheduled to leave the chapel at 10:00, be there no later than 9:15. [Address: Shomrei Hadas: 3803 14th Av. Brooklyn NY 11218].
