Reminders for the days of Purim – 5785

[May not be posted on any internet website or watsap group or any electronic format without prior consent from the author]

To the families of Anash שיחיו of the community at the EU – Brussels
And virtualcommunity@sichos.online

* Experience has shown that it is best if both husband and wife (and children...) review this each day thoroughly so that miscommunications and last-minute panics can be avoided, and Yom Tov can truly be celebrated joyfully.

* All the sources are in the Hebrew section of the “Reminders”.

* Important note: It has been stressed many times that these are merely “Reminders” to be able to see things “at a glance” and they are not a compilation of Halocho.

Since there are several Halochois that require elaboration, the format of the “Reminders” has been kept, and the additional details are included at the end of this document, in the “Laws and customs by Rabbi Lesches”, with his permission (they are all also available on the website below), which includes:

Purim preparations/parshas zachor/Taanis Esther (Thursday)/Eating prior to a Fast/Laws of Fasting/Taanis Esther: Shacharis/Kriah/Conduct on Taanis Esther/Machatzis Hashekel/Taanis Esther: Mincha/Purim Dress/V'al Hanissim/End of fast & Maariv/Megillah Reading/Interruption during Megillah/Purim night/Shacharis/Working on Purim/Mishloach Manos/Matanos Lo'evyonim/Mivtzoim/Seudas Purim/Wine and Alcohol/Shabbos Shushan Purim/Sunday 16th of Adar.

* On the last page there is a listing of the times (Zmanim) for the NY area.

Please post this on the refrigerator or another central location.

Wishing you a true Simchas Yom Tov, which we will celebrate in the Bais Hamikdosh Hashlishi.

Important note:

This year Purim falls out on Friday/Erev Shabbos, so there is a lot of “prior planning” required.

During the month of Adar:

1. Mishenichnas Adar Marbim Besimcha!
2. It is customary to learn the Halochois (laws) associated with Purim, [on the website sichos.online there are a lot of details], in Nigle and in Chassidus.
3. We add in the giving of Tzedoko.
4. Give extra Tzedoko for those who do not have basic needs for Yom Tov (like Maos Chitim before Pesach).
5. We make the necessary arrangements for “Mivtza Purim” to go on Mivtzoim etc.

What to prepare before Purim:

1. Assorted foods - for Mishloach Monos (even one who participates in communal baskets still must send regular Mishloach Monos.)
2. Kreplach - for the Purim Seuda.
3. A kosher *Megillah - if possible.
4. Graggers - and noisemakers for the children.
5. Money – for Machatzis Hashekel, Matanos Lo'evyonim and for those who deliver Mishloach Manos.
6. A *Ba'al Kriah - if necessary, to read the Megillah at home by night and by day and for Mivtzoim.
7. Mivtza Purim - Arrange where the family will perform "Mivtza Purim".

Shabbos Zochoir - 8 Adar

Parshas Zochoir

- All males are obligated to hear Parshas Zochoir being read in Shul.
- All women and girls should go to Shul to hear Parshas Zochoir, for such is the Minhag Yisroel. However, women who generally don't go to Shul because they are tending to their young children and it's hard for them to arrange to go to Shul, are not obligated to go to Shul to hear Parshas Zochoir being read. Instead they can read it in a Chumash. It is found at the end of Parshas Ki Seitze (Dvorim 25, 17).
- Ov Horachamim (before Musaf): Is recited.
- Tzidkoscho (in Mincha): Is recited.

12 Adar – Wednesday Evening - preparing for Taanis Esther (tomorrow)

- After one goes to sleep, even if he wakes up in middle of the night, he is not permitted to eat. If one wants to wake up before Alos Hashachar to eat, see below in number 3.

Fasting

1. Pregnant and nursing women (or someone who is ill ו"ב) do not need to fast. However, they should only eat the necessities (and not delicacies).
2. Anyone who is not feeling well or finds it difficult to fast should please contact the Rov ahead of time.
3. On the night before the fast, after one goes to sleep, even if he wakes up in middle of the night, he is not permitted to eat. If it is difficult to fast, and it is easier if he eats early in the morning (before dawn), then one must declare (verbally) his intentions (before he goes to sleep) to wake up early and eat. He has to arrange it in a manner that he should say Birchois Hashachar and finish eating and drinking before Alos Hashachar, (see local calendar for the times).The fast begins at Alos Hashachar/dawn. (See local calendar).
4. For additional details regarding the above, kindly read the "Laws and Customs" at the end of this document.

13 Adar - Thursday תענית אסתר - Fast of Esther

Shacharis of Taanis Esther

1. [In Chazoras Hashat”z, the Chazan says “Aneinu” after גואל ישראל. If he forgot – see “Laws and Customs”].
2. Selichos: After Tachanun, towards the end of Vehu Rachum (which is recited on Mondays and Thursdays) after כי אין עוזר - the Selichos of Taanis Esther are recited [even if one is not fasting he still recites them].
3. Ovinu Malkeinu (the long one) is recited after Selichos.
4. [Then we read the Torah – Vayechal. Then Chatzi Kadish but no Haftorah. After Hagboho we recite Ashrei Uvo Letzion etc. and the davening continues as regular].

- During the day we add in the giving of Tzedokoh.

Before Mincha of Taanis Esther

• Machatzis HaShekel:

1. Before davening Mincha one should give 3 Half-Shekel coins for מחצית השקל.
2. It is customary that a father also gives on behalf of his wife and their small children (and if the wife is pregnant – some give for the unborn child).
3. Usually, the Gabbai of the Shul has the coins for "מחצית השקל".
4. [If one forgot to do it today – see Shacharis of Purim below].
5. Children: On one occasion the Rebbe mentioned that children, with the assistance of the parents, should be encouraged to give Machatzis Hashekel from their own money.

Mincha of Taanis Esther:

1. Korbonois, Ashrei, Chatzi Kadish, Vayehi Binsoa, Krias Hatorah - Vaychal and Maftir/Haftoroh. Yehalelu/Half Kadish and the Shemone-Esrei.
2. Tachanun - is not recited.
3. Aneinu - We add Aneinu in the Brocho of "שומע תפלה". [If one forgot, it can be said after "אלקי נצור" before the second "יהיו לרצון". If one forgot and concluded the Shemone-Esrei he does not have to repeat it]. One who is not fasting does not say Aneinu.
4. In Chazoras Hashat”z: 1. the Chazan recites Aneinu after the Brocho of גואל ישראל. 2. Before שים שלום he recites the ברכת כהנים.
5. Ovinu Malkeinu - The long אבינו מלכנו is not recited.
6. Sicha: After Mincha the Rebbe would say a Sicha דברי כיבושין.

In the evening of Purim

On Purim it is customary to wear a silk Kapote like on Shabbos and Yom Tov.

In Maariv:

1. [Aveilim (mourners) ר"ל Daven for the Omud on Purim].
2. Ve'al Hanissim: In the Shemone-Esrei (after Moidim) we add Ve'al Hanissim. If one forgot, and remembered before he said the word "ה" of the Brocho "נאה להודות" he should go back and say "ועל הניסים". If he remembered after saying the word "ה" he does not go back.

3. Megillah: After Shemone Esrei (and Kaddish Tiskabel) the Megillah is read.
4. For all the details regarding the reading of the Megillah, please see “laws and customs” at the end of this document.
5. The listeners should not respond Boruch Hu Uvoruch Shmo to the blessings, they should only respond “Omain” to the end of each Brocho.
6. We make noise by “Haman” only when it is accompanied by a title or description, such as "המן" "האגגי", "המדתא האגגי", "בן המן הרע" etc.
7. If during the Megillah reading one finds a פסול in the Megillah, if most of the letters are Kosher, it is permissible בדיעבד to continue.
8. After the Megillah reading, we say קדוש ואתה קדוש, Kadish without Tiskabel (like Kadish Yosom) and then עלינו etc.

At Home (Purim at night):

Ensure that everyone, especially the women who did not go to Shul, hear the Megillah being read tonight.

1. Reading the Megillah, for those who did not hear it in Shul:
 - a. If the Baal Koreh already heard (and was יוצא with) the Megillah, and he is reading for others, the Brochois are recited out loud by another man who did not yet hear the Megillah and he is Motzi the other people present with the Brochois. If there are only women, one of them should say the Brocho מגילה (or לשמוע מגילה) and the other two Brochois and be Motzi the other women with the Brochois.
 - b. When the Brochois are recited, everyone must be standing, however, they may sit while the Megillah is being read.
 - c. The listeners should not respond Boruch Hu Uvoruch Shmo to the blessings, they should only respond “Omain” to the end of each Brocho.
 - d. If there is no Minyan present, the Brocho הרב את ריבנו (after the Megillah) is not recited. However שושנת יעקב is recited.

[Evening meal: Many have the custom to have a Seudah the evening of Purim with a white tablecloth and candles. However – it must be stressed that one fulfills the Mitzvah of Seudas Purim only with the Seudah that is done by day.]

2. Birchas Hamazon In the evening of Purim:
 - a. In the Birchas Hamazon of the evening meal, ועל הניסים is added.
 - b. If one forgot, and remembered before saying the word ה' in the Brocho "על הארץ ועל המזון", he should go back and say ועל הניסים. If he remembered after saying the word ה', then when he reaches "הרחמן הוא יזכנו" he should add: "הרחמן הוא יעשה לנו ניסים כמו שעשה לאבותינו בימים ההם בזמן הזה, בימי מדכי וכו'".
If he forgot and already finished Bentching, he doesn't repeat it.
 - c. We say Magdil as usual (not like Yomtov that we say Migdol).

14 Adar – Friday - Purim - Erev Shabbos - פורים

Shacharis:

1. Tachanun - is not recited.
2. V'al Hanissim - We add "ועל הניסים" in Shemone Esrei. If one forgot, and remembered before he said the word "ה" of the Brocho "הטוב שמך ולך נאה להודות" he should go back and say "ועל הניסים". If he remembered after saying the word "ה" he does not go back.
3. Krias HaTorah – ויבא עמלק at the end of Parshas Beshalach:
 - A. If one did not hear Parshas Zochoir, he can fulfill his obligation through listening to this Torah Reading.
 - B. After Krias HaTorah, Chatzi Kadish is recited. Then Hagbah and Gelilah are performed. The one who did Hagbah (or he may appoint someone else) remains seated with the Sefer Torah for the reading of the Megillah.
4. Machatzis Hashekel: One who did not yet give Machatzis Hashekel should do so now before the reading of the Megillah.
5. Announcement before the reading of the Megillah: Before the reading of the Megillah, they should announce that when the Baal Kriah says the Brocho of Shehecheyanu (before reading the Megillah), one should also have in mind the other three Mitzvos that are done on Purim: Mishloach Monos, Matonos Loevyonim and the Seudah.
6. The Megillah is read.
7. After the Megillah is read we say the Brocho of Horov Es Rivenu etc., Ashrei, Uvo Letzion, Kadish Tiskabel and the Torah is returned to the Aron Koidesh. The Davening resumes as regular.
8. Tehillim: Before reciting the daily Tehillim, Chapter 20 is recited.

During the day of Purim:

* We go on Mivtzoim to ensure that other Yidden also perform the Mitzvos of the day.

There are four Mitzvos to be done on this day:

1. Reading the Megillah, for those who did not hear it in Shul:
 - a. Before the reading of the Megillah, they should announce that when the Brocho of שהחיינו is recited, everyone should also have in mind the other three Mitzvos of the day: Mishloach Monos, Matonos Loevyonim and the Seuda.
 - b. If the Baal Koreh already heard (was יוצא) the Megillah, and he is reading for others, the Brochois are recited out loud by another man who did not yet hear the Megillah and he is Motzi the other people present with the Brochois. If there are only women, one of them should say the Brocho מקרא מגילה (or לשמוע מגילה) and the other two Brochois and be Motzi the other women with the Brochois.
 - c. When the Brochois are recited, everyone must be standing, however, they may sit while the Megillah is being read.
 - d. The listeners should not respond Boruch Hu Uvoruch Shmo to the blessings, they should only respond "Omain" to the end of each Brocho.
 - e. If there is no Minyan present, the Brocho הרב את ריבנו (after the Megillah) is not recited, however we do recite שושנת יעקב.

2. Mishloach Manos: A man to a man, a woman to a woman, or families to families, and educate the children to do so. Those who participated in “communal baskets” should nevertheless send at least one (or three) regular Mishloach Manos.
3. Matonois Lo’evyonim, to at least two poor people. If there are no poor people to give to, money should be given to the Gabbai Tzedaka, and educate the children to participate as well.
4. Seudah – festive meal (see further for details).

The Alter Rebbe writes in Torah Or (and it is also brought in Sefer Haminhogim) that the joy of Purim is much greater than the joy of Yom Tov.

Mincha of Purim – Erev Shabbos

1. See below in “The Seudah” section: As today is Erev Shabbos, some will eat the Seudah before Mincha and other after Mincha. Organize yourself accordingly.
2. Hodu and Posach Eliyohu: As today is Erev Shabbos, we say Hodu and Posach Eliyohu before reciting Mincha.
3. Tachanun is not recited.
4. V’al Hanissim is added in Shemone-Esrei. If one forgot, and remembered before he said the word 'ה of the Brocho להודות ולך נאה להודות he should go back and say "ועל הניסים". If he remembered after saying the word 'ה he does not go back.

Seudah (festive meal) –

- We eat the Kreplach.

When should the Seudah take place? As today is Erev Shabbos, there are several options:

Option 1 where the meal finishes before Shabbos:

- a. One needs to honor Shabbos and Purim, each one with a festive meal. Therefore, one should schedule the Purim meal for the morning hours. Because on Erev Shabbos a festive, non-standard meal should not be eaten after the “tenth hour” on Friday, to honor the Shabbos by ensuring that you have an appetite when eating the Shabbos night meal. (The “tenth hour” is the halfway point between chatzos and shekiah/tzeis hakochavim.)
- b. How early should you start the meal? Some say it is best to start before chatzos. However, the Rebbe says that there is no need to be particular about this, and you can start it after chatzos too—as long as it is before the beginning of the “tenth hour.”
- c. If one starts the meal after chatzos, wait till the time of Mincha Gedola and daven Minchah, prefaced by Hodu and Posach Eliyohu, and then start the meal.
- d. Once the meal begins on time, it can continue beyond the “tenth hour”, as long as you finish eating before Shabbos. Of course, be mindful to leave an appetite for later that night. When Bentching, say Ve’al Hanissim.

Option 2: Where the meal starts before Shabbos and extends into Shabbos, known as “Pores Mapo Umekadesh”:

If one needs to start the meal late in the day (for example: he spent the whole day on Mivtzoim etc.) he may begin the meal before the shekiah and extend it into Shabbos, following a procedure known as pores mapoh u’mekadesh.

Kindly see the attached document from Dayan Raskin ^{י"ש} at the end of the reminders for that procedure. If you decide to do “Pores Mapoh” print out the instructions and follow them meticulously! And make sure that you are ALL prepared for Shabbos before washing for the meal (Blech, Check pockets etc.).

- Regardless of the two options - Do not forget to daven Maariv after the meal.

- At the Rebbe's Farbrengen on Purim, amongst other things, The Rebbe would encourage everyone to contribute towards Magbis and several times the Rebbe instructed to sing "Hop Kozack".

Before Shabbos starts:

- Mincha: Ascertain that everyone Davened Mincha, prefaced by Hodu and Posach Eliyohu. Make sure to check the pockets, as on Shabbos one may not carry outside, and on Purim one wears his Shabbos clothes and may have inadvertently inserted something in the pockets.
- Candle lighting: As usual.

Maariv of Friday night

- Make sure to remind everyone to Daven Maariv.
- Maariv is like a regular Friday night.
- In Lecha Dodi we say גם ברינה ובצהלה
- We do not say Veal Hanisim in Maariv.

15 Adar – Shabbos Ki Sisa – Shushan Purim שושן פורים

- Simcha: We continue Simchas Purim. I suggest that you learn the Rebbe's letter of Purim תשמ"א which is printed in 488 ע' בא ע' לקוטי שיחות חלק כ.
- Hilchos Pesach: We begin to learn the Halachos of Pesach.
- Matzah: Matzah is not eaten until the night of the Seder.
- Ov Horachamim is not recited before Musaf.
- Tzidkoscho: is not recited in Mincha.

16 Adar – Sunday - Purim Meshulash

- Tachanun is not recited.
- Simcha: We continue Simchas Purim. See in detail the Rebbe's letter above.
- Maos Chitim: We start giving Maos Chitim (Tzedaka for the needy for Pesach).

22 Adar – Shabbos Parshas Vayakhel/Poro

- Krias Hatorah: We take out two Sifrei Torah. In the first one we read the Parsha of Vayakhel and in the second one we read Parshas Poro (it is found in Sefer Bamidbar in the beginning of Parsha Chukas).
- Ov Horachamim: Is recited.
- Tzidkoscho: is recited in Mincha.

25 Adar – Birthday of our Rebbetzin – בנה אדר

- We start saying the new Kapitel Tehillim קבה.

Shabbos Mevorchim - Parshas Pekudei/Hachodesh -Shabbos Chazak -

- Tehillim: The whole Tehillim is recited like every Shabbos Mevorchim.
- Krias Hatorah: We take out two Sifrei Torah. In the first one we read the Parsha of Pekudei, in the second one we read (maftir) Parshas Hachodesh. It is found in Sefer Shmos in middle of Parshas Bo.
- We bless the Month: Rosh Chodesh Nissan is (tomorrow) on Sunday. The Moilad is on Shabbos Morning at 7 am 46 minutes and 1 Chelek.

May we merit to celebrate this Purim in the Bais Hamikdosh Hashlishi!

Q. When Purim is on Erev Shabbos, when should the Purim meal be eaten?

A. There are two approaches you can follow when scheduling your Purim meal:

Morning meal. One approach is to schedule the meal for the morning hours. This is based on the halachah that a festive, non-standard meal should not be eaten after the “tenth hour” on Friday, to ensure you have an appetite when eating the Shabbos night meal.¹ (The tenth hour is the halfway point between chatzos and shekiah/tzeis hakochavim.)

How early should you start the meal? Some say it is best to start before chatzos.² However, the Rebbe says that there is no need to be particular about this,³ and you can start it after chatzos too—as long as it is before the beginning of the “tenth hour.” If starting the meal after chatzos, it is best to daven Minchah beforehand.⁴

Once the meal begins on time, it can continue beyond the tenth hour, as long as you finish eating before Shabbos.⁵ Of course, be mindful to leave an appetite for later that night. When bentching, say Ve'al Hanissim even if it is after shekiah.⁶

Bedi'eved, if you did not start the meal before the tenth hour, you may do so afterward.⁷

Pores mapah u'mekadesh. Another option is to begin the meal before shekiah and extend it into Shabbos, following a procedure known as pores mapah u'mekadesh. This procedure was done on various occasions in 770, until the Rebbe discontinued it in 5744, as it was being done incorrectly.⁸

However, in a Chabad House setting, this might be the optimal way to share the mitzvos of Purim with your community members. Of course, if you follow this approach, you must make sure to do it correctly. Here are step-by-step instructions:⁹

- Daven Minchah before starting the meal.
- Wash for bread and start the Purim meal before shekiah. Lechat'chilah, eat at least a kezayis of bread and drink some wine before shekiah.

⁸ See Toras Menachem 5744, vol. 1, pp. 25 and 323. Toras Menachem 5748, vol. 1, p. 319.

⁹ Based primarily on Alter Rebbe's Shulchan Aruch 271:9–13 and Sefer Haminhagim p. 57.

- The women light Shabbos candles at candle lighting time. If there are no women present, one of the men should light Shabbos candles, with a brachah.¹⁰
- At shekiah, stop eating and drinking. Those who lit Shabbos candles should stop eating and drinking when lighting.
- Bring two loaves of challah to the table to serve as lechem mishneh. Cover them.
- Make Kiddush as usual, beginning with Sholom Aleichem until the end. If you drank wine earlier in the meal, omit Borei Pri Hagafen. You may make Kiddush immediately after shekiah, and you do not need to wait until tzeis hakochovim.
- Uncover the lechem mishneh and cut the challah. Do not repeat Hamotzi, as you already said it earlier in the meal. Similarly, do not wash for bread a second time.
- Continue the meal. Make sure to eat at least another kebeitzah of bread for the Shabbos meal. Lechatchilah, eat at least one kezayis after tzeis hakochovim.¹¹ (This can be done either by waiting until tzeis hakochovim to start the meal, or by starting immediately after shekiah and eating one kezayis then and an additional kezayis after tzeis hakochovim.)
- When bentching, say both Retzei and Ve'al Hanissim, provided you ate bread both before shekiah and after tzeis hakochovim. If you davened Maariv in the middle of the meal, do not say Ve'al Hanissim when bentching.¹²
- Daven Kabolas Shabbos and Maariv. There is no need to make Kiddush again and eat another meal.

Of course, if you finished your Purim meal and bentched and are eating a second meal Shabbos night, make Kiddush and say Hamotzi as usual.

🕊️ PURIM PREPARATIONS

An inspiring Purim is the product of diligent preparation. In the days prior to Purim, one should review the Halachos of Purim, learn Maamarim which focus on the inner dimension of Purim, and make appropriate Mivtzoim preparations. [Especially this year, 1the Rebbe emphasised that extra foresight and planning is required to ensure that Mivtzoim activities do not interfere with Shabbos, whether on the part of the organisers or the participants.]

🕊️ PARSHAS ZACHOR

It is a Torah obligation for all men and boys over the age of Bar Mitzvah to hear Parshas Zachor. [One who absolutely cannot attend a Minyan should read this passage from a Sefer Torah or Chumash, with the Trop if he knows it.]

There is a dispute whether women must hear Parshas Zachor. It is thus ideal for women to attend Shule. However, a woman who cannot easily attend (e.g. she is tending to her small children) may instead read this passage from the Chumash.

Ordinarily, a Sefer Torah may not be moved to another location for one-time use. Nevertheless, one may do so to facilitate the Kriah of Parshas Zachor.

Ideally, the Ba'al Koreh should be old enough to have a beard. [If this is not possible, a boy over thirteen may serve as Ba'al Koreh only if it is established that he has reached puberty and has the Halachic status of a Bar Mitzvah.]

The Ba'al Koreh should read loudly and clearly, having in mind to be Moitzie everyone listening to the Kriah. Similarly, all the listeners should have in mind to be Yoitzei the Kriah and to fulfil the Mitzvah of remembering to eliminate Amalek.

The word Zecher is first read with a Tzeirei, and then again with a Segol.

Av Harachamim is recited.

🕊️ TAANIS ESTHER (THURSDAY)

Taanis Esther is not one of the four public fasts instituted by the Nevi'im. One should not presume that leniencies outlined below automatically apply to other fasts. [Needless to say, aside from these leniencies, one must observe Taanis Esther scrupulously.]

Pregnant mothers, nursing mothers and anyone considerably weakened by illness or advanced age need not fast. [One should not be unduly strict in this regard.] Mothers who have difficulty fasting while tending to their young children should consult with a Rav.

A Chosson and Kallah during the week of Sheva Brochos need not fast.

When a Bris occurs on Taanis Esther, the Baalei Habris (i.e. the Mohel, the Sandek, and the father of the baby) need not fast. However, all other attendees must fast. Therefore, the Seudah takes place at night, after the fast.

Aside from the exceptions enumerated above, all healthy adults must observe Taanis Esther scrupulously. If one inadvertently ate during the fast, one must immediately resume fasting.

Anyone below Bar/Bas Mitzvah need not fast. From age nine upwards, the custom is to train children to fast for several hours, as per the child's abilities. [One should not be unduly strict in this regard.]

An individual exempt from fasting should eat in private only, and avoid meat, delicacies or excessive intake. Children old enough to understand the concept of a fast should avoid delicacies and meat.

🕊️ EATING PRIOR TO THE FAST

One may eat and drink the entire evening until dawn (See local calendar), provided that either of these conditions are met:

- One didn't go to sleep for the night. [Dozing off is not regarded as such.]
- One stipulated (preferably verbally) before going to sleep that he will eat upon waking. In this case, one recites the morning Brochos before eating.

🕊️ LAWS OF FASTING

One shouldn't brush one's teeth or rinse one's mouth. [If this will cause great aggravation, there is room to be lenient, provided that one leans forward to prevent any liquid from flowing down one's throat; that one uses substances unfit for consumption (e.g. Listerine); and that one rinses with less than 86 ml.]

Non-chewable pills may be taken for medical purposes, without water. A Rav should be consulted about other medicines.

One may shower, bathe and apply ointments and creams. [Even those who choose to be strict on other fast days may nevertheless be lenient on Taanis Esther.]

One may touch food and engage in its preparation, but not taste it to determine whether it requires salt/spices. However, when preparing food for a Seudas Mitzvah scheduled for the night following the fast, one may taste the food if necessary, provided that all these conditions are met:

- One expels it without swallowing.
- One tastes only an absolute minimum.
- One does not taste more than 86 ml in total throughout the day.

🕊️ TAANIS ESTHER: SHACHARIS

During Shacharis, only the Chazzan recites Aneinu. Therefore, one who won't be fasting shouldn't serve as Chazzan.

[In the unlikely event that the Chazzan won't be fasting, or less than three congregants are fasting: Instead of reciting Aneinu between Goel Yisroel and R'foeinu, the Chazzan includes Aneinu in the Brocho of Shema Koleinu, and concludes the Brocho regularly; i.e. Shomea Tefillah.]

A Chazzan who forgot to recite Aneinu:

- if he remembered before reciting Hashem's name at the end of the Brocho of R'foeinu, he recites Aneinu immediately, and then repeats the Brocho of R'foeinu;
- if he already concluded the Brocho of R'foeinu, he recites Aneinu in the Brocho of Shema Koleinu, ending the Brocho with a double conclusion; i.e. Ha'one B'eis Tzara V'shomea Tefillah;
- if he already concluded the Brocho of Shema Koleinu, he recites Aneinu as a separate Brocho immediately after the Brocho of Sim Shalom.

Selichos is recited after Misratzeh at the end of the long Thursday Tachnun addition, right before Avinu Malkeinu.

It is customary to stand for the entire Selichos. [An infirm person may sit. If possible, he should at least stand for each recitation of the Yud-Gimel Midos.]

One who davens without a Minyan omits the Yud-Gimel Midos-Harachamim.

The long Avinu Malkeinu is recited. [It is not our custom to recite it verse by verse after the Chazzan.]

If Tachnun is not recited (e.g. a Chosson is present), Selichos is still recited, whereas Avinu Malkeinu is not recited.

One who is not fasting must still recite Selichos and the long Avinu Malkeinu.

☞ TAANIS ESTHER: KRIAH

The passage of Vayechal is read, provided that at least three congregants are fasting.

A non-fasting individual must still hear Krias Hatorah of Vayechal, but is not called up for an Aliya. [If he is the only Kohen or Levi, he should absent himself.] If he is called up at Shacharis, he may accept the Aliya, since Thursday is always a day of Kriah. However, at Mincha, he should accept the Aliya only if declining it will pain him or minimize the honour of the Torah. In any case, he may perform Hagbah or Gelilah.

A non-fasting individual shouldn't serve as the Ba'al Koreh, unless no one else can.

When the congregation recites the verses aloud, the Ba'al Koreh waits for silence before resuming. The Oileh begins these verses with the congregation, but ends with the Ba'al Koreh.

☞ CONDUCT ON TAANIS ESTHER

One should learn Torah connected to the topic of the fast.

One should give increased Tzedakah, especially before davening. It is proper to give the value of the forgone meals – especially if one is exempt from fasting.

The purpose of fasting is to make a Cheshbon Hanefesh (soul reckoning) and do Teshuvah. Idling away one's time, or partaking in joyous or entertaining activities, is not in the spirit of the fast. One should be especially careful to avoid anger.

☞ MACHATZIS HASHEKEL

Before Mincha, all males over Bar-Mitzvah give three halves of the local currency. [In Australia, three 50-cent pieces.]

One should not use Maaser money for his own Machatzis Hashekel.

The Rebbeim would also give Machatzis Hashekel on behalf of their wives and daughters, as well as for their sons under the age of Bar Mitzvah. [Sefer Haminhagim qualifies that this isn't a directive for the public. Nevertheless, it is prevalent amongst Chassidim to do so.]

Ideally, boys below Bar Mitzvah should give their Machatzis Hashekel personally.

It is preferable that the proceeds go to a Shule or Beis Midrash, just as the Machatzis Hashekel of old would be used for the Beis Hamikdash. Alternatively, the proceeds are distributed to the poor.

☞ TAANIS ESTHER: MINCHA

Mincha is longer than usual (due to Krias

Hatorah and Haftorah); it should be timed to conclude before sunset (See local calendar).

Krias Hatorah should not begin prior to Mincha Gedolah (See local calendar). Shmoneh Esrei may certainly not begin before then.

After Haftorah, the Chazzan slowly recites Kaddish while the Torah is returned to the Aron, similar to Mincha on Shabbos.

An individual who forgot Aneinu may recite it in the passage Elokai N'tzor, before the second Yih'yu L'ratzon. If he didn't remember until he ended Shmoneh Esrei, he does not repeat it. [A non-fasting individual does not recite Aneinu.]

The Chazzan recites Aneinu between Goel Yisrael and R'foeinu, and also recites Birchas Kohanim towards the end of Shmoneh Esrei.

Tachnun and Avinu Malkeinu are not recited, since it is Erev Purim.

The Rebbe reinstated the custom of addressing the congregation after Mincha to arouse them to Teshuvah.

☞ PURIM DRESS

The Rebbeim would wear Shabbos clothing throughout Purim. [Sefer Haminhagim qualifies that this isn't a directive for the public. Nevertheless, it is prevalent amongst Chassidim to dress accordingly. Some say that the Rebbe himself encouraged this.]

The custom is for children to wear masks or costumes. One should ensure that costumes do not contain Shatnez.

Cross-dressing is absolutely forbidden throughout the year. Although the Remo and several other early Achronim rule leniently with regards to Purim, the overwhelming majority forbid it. This prohibition applies to all adults and children who are of the age of Chinuch.

The Rebbe encouraged children to shy away from dressing as Haman or other wicked people. [When a Purim play requires a child to act the part of Haman, the Rebbe indicated that this role be played without considerable enthusiasm.]

☞ V'AL HANISSIM

V'al Hanissim is recited in each Shmoneh Esrei of Purim. One should not intentionally skip V'al Hanissim to recite Kedushah or Modim with the Minyan.

If one forgot V'al Hanissim at the appropriate place in Shmoneh Esrei, he may still recite it if he did not yet say Hashem's name at the end of that Brocho. After that point, he does not recite it.

V'al Hanissim is recited each time one bentches on Purim. If one forgot V'al Hanissim at the appropriate place, he may recite it before saying Hashem's name at the end of that Brocho. After that point, he may recite it as a Horachamon, as per the Nusach printed in the Siddur.

Towards the end of benching, one recites Magdil, and not Migdol.

☞ END OF FAST & MAARIV

The fast concludes at (See local calendar). One should endeavour to hear the Megillah as soon as possible after this time. [If circumstances require it to be read beforehand, a Rav should be consulted.] Nevertheless, the Megillah may be read the entire night until dawn (See local calendar).

One may not perform any activity that may distract him prior to reading the Megillah. Therefore, one may not eat, drink, nap or perform work from half-hour prior to Tzeis until after hearing the Megillah.

The prohibition to eat and drink applies both to those who are fasting as well as to those who are not. [Nevertheless, one who feels ill or weak, or a woman who is awaiting her husband's return from Shule, may eat or drink between Maariv and the Megillah reading. Even so, one should not eat more than a K'beitzah (57 grams) of bread or Mezonos – unless there are health concerns, in which case one should appoint a Shomer (guardian) to remind him to hear the Megillah.]

An Ovel (within 12 months of a parent's passing or within 30 days of a spouse, child or sibling's passing) still serves as Chazzan on Purim.

The Chazzan recites Kaddish Tiskabel immediately after Shmoneh Esrei. The Megillah is read immediately afterwards.

After the Megillah is concluded, V'atah Kaddosh is recited, followed by the full Kaddish but without Tiskabel.

☞ MEGILLAH READING

All men and women over the age of Bar/Bas Mitzvah must hear the Megillah.

Children (both boys and girls) should also attend the Megillah reading and quietly follow along according to their ability, unless they are too young and will create a disturbance. [An infant who cries or makes noise should be taken out of Shule.]

Ideally, one should attend a Megillah reading in a Shule where a large crowd has congregated. [Despite this, one need not attend any Shule other than the one he ordinarily attends.]

At the very least, one should hear the Megillah with a Minyan. [This applies even if he will be reading the Megillah later for individuals who could not attend a Minyan.] If this is also not possible, one should still endeavour to hear the Megillah with as many people as possible.

One does not fulfil the Mitzvah of Megillah when hearing it by way of a microphone, phone, radio, Zoom or any other electronic medium. [A person who uses hearing aids should consult a Rav.]

A perfectly Kosher Megillah should be used. [If that is unavailable, a Megillah with disqualified or missing letters/words may be used if they do not occur at its beginning or end, nor do they comprise an entire section or the majority of the Megillah. Needless to say, the Ba'al Koreh must still recite every single word – including the missing or disqualified words – when using such a Megillah.]

One may assume that his friend consents to his Megillah being borrowed for the sake of performing the Mitzvah, as long as it remains in the vicinity at all times, and it is returned to exactly the same place in the same condition.

It is preferable that the listener follows along in a proper Megillah and recites the words in a whisper audible only to himself – but only if he is sufficiently familiar with the proper pronunciation of the words.

One who follows along from a Chumash should not recite the words at all, but must rather pay especially close attention to the Ba'al Koreh.

Before the first Brochos are recited, the Megillah is unrolled and folded twice, to create three folds. The ends of the scroll should not dangle disrespectfully. [This also applies to everyone else following along with a proper Megillah.]

One may touch the parchment of the Megillah directly, unlike a Sefer Torah.

The Ba'al Koreh in Shule should be flanked by at least one person on his right and another on his left.

An Ovel (within 12 months of a parent's passing or within 30 days of a spouse, child or sibling's passing) may read the Megillah for individuals. However, he should not serve as the Ba'al Koreh in a Minyan, unless this is his regular function, or there is nobody as fluent as him.

Everyone should stand for the Brochos, unless it is too difficult. During the actual Megillah reading in Shule, the Ba'al Koreh must stand (and may lean for support if necessary), but those listening don't need to stand. Nevertheless, the Rebbe would stand, and this is the prevalent custom.

When the Ba'al Koreh recites the Brochos, he should have in mind to be Moitzie everyone as they listen to the Brochos and the entire Megillah. Similarly, all the listeners should intend to be Yoitzei the Brochos and the entire Megillah, and should not say "Boruch Hu u'Voruch Shmoi". [If one accidentally did so, he does not recite the Brochos again.]

If the Ba'al Koreh already heard the Megillah, the Brochos are recited by another man who did not yet hear the Megillah, and he is Moitzie everyone. If none of the men present are able to recite the Brochos, the Ba'al Koreh may recite it for them (or prompt them word by word).

When the Megillah is read for women only, and the Ba'al Koreh already heard the Megillah, the women recite the Brochos themselves (standing). They may either recite the Brochos individually, or have one woman be Moitzie all the others. The same applies when reading Megillah for children under Bar/Bas Mitzvah.

One should not speak from the time of the opening Brochos until the Megillah reading (and the last Brocho) is concluded, because unnecessary speech constitutes an interruption, and also prevents him from hearing every word of the Megillah.

Whenever Haman's name is mentioned alongside a title, one should stamp his feet vigorously. Children should be encouraged in spinning their graggers and stamping out Haman's name. The Ba'al Koreh should wait for absolute silence before resuming.

The following Pesukim are read aloud by the congregation, followed by the Ba'al Koreh: 2:5, 8:15, 8:16, 10:3.

The Ba'al Koreh raises his voice at "Balailah Hahu" (6:1).

The Baal Koreh reads "Laharog Ul'abeid; v'Laharog Ul'abeid" (8:11) and "V'ish Lo Omad Bifenyhem; V'ish Lo Omad Lifenyhem" (9:3).

The congregation reads the ten sons of Haman quickly in one breath, from the words "Chamesh Meios Ish" until "Aseres" (9:6-10), followed by the Ba'al Koreh. [Despite the speed of reading and the large gaps that appear in the Megillah between these words, the Ba'al Koreh should ensure that he is looking at each respective word as he pronounces it. Nevertheless, if he failed to do so, the Megillah reading is still valid.]

The Megillah is given a light shake at the words "Ha'igeres Hazos" (9:26) and "Ha'igeres Hapurim Hazos" (9:29). [This also applies to everyone else following along with a proper Megillah.]

The final Brocho is recited by the Ba'al Koreh, but only if the Megillah was read with a Minyan. [The Rebbeim would recite this Brocho even without a Minyan.] Shoshanas Yaakov is recited by everyone even when there is no Minyan.

The Megillah should remain unfurled until the conclusion of the last Brocho. [This also applies to everyone else following along with a proper Megillah.]

🔊 INTERRUPTION DURING MEGILLAH

One who misses hearing even a single word is not Yoitzei the Megillah reading. Therefore, one should pay absolute attention to every word whilst the Ba'al Koreh is reading the Megillah, and not allow his mind to wander.

If one missed hearing a word, the best solution is to read from that word onwards, until he catches up with the Ba'al Koreh. This is necessary because each word of the Megillah must be read/heard in the correct order. It is best to do this using a proper Megillah, but a Chumash is still acceptable for this purpose (up to half of the Megillah).

One need not recite the words with the Trop if this will detain or prevent him from catching up to the Ba'al Koreh. However, one must ensure that all the words are properly enunciated and vowelized.

If one missed a word and did not follow the guidelines above, or he left during the Megillah reading for even a short time, he must hear the Megillah again. Nevertheless, he does not need to start again from the beginning, but may instead resume hearing it from the place where he was interrupted. In such an instance, one does not repeat the Brochos unless he diverted his attention from the Mitzvah of Megillah.

As mentioned above, one should not speak during the Megillah reading. If one said anything unrelated to the Megillah between the Brochos and the very start of Megillah, he needs to recite the Brochos again. If one spoke after this time – even matters unrelated to the Megillah – he does not repeat the Brochos again. Nevertheless, being that he could not have properly heard the words that the Ba'al Koreh was reading whilst he was talking or repeating the Brochos, he must follow the guidelines above for one who missed a word.

One should not pause unnecessarily during the Megillah. Nevertheless, if one paused even for an extended period of time, he may resume from the place where he paused. The exception is if he was forced to pause due to circumstances beyond his control, and the pause was for more time than it would have taken him to finish reading the Megillah. In such a case, one needs to start reading the Megillah again from the beginning, but does not repeat the Brochos.

🌀 PURIM NIGHT

The table should be set with a tablecloth and candles. Even though there is no requirement to eat a festive meal at night, one should still rejoice and eat something special in honour of Purim. [One should moderate any festivities in order that they do not interfere with Purim morning.]

It is customary to eat seeds on Purim, such as poppy-seed Hamantashen, to commemorate the seeds that Esther ate when keeping Kosher in the king's palace.

🌀 SHACHARIS

Megillah is read after sunrise (See local calendar). Shacharis should be timed to read the Megillah as soon as possible. In extenuating circumstances, one may read the Megillah between dawn (See local calendar) and sunrise.

Ideally, men should not eat before hearing the Megillah. If this is difficult, or there is any concern that one will be unable to concentrate during davening, one may snack, but should not eat a K'beitzah (57 grams) of Mezonos. Nevertheless, one should not be stringent if there are any health concerns.

V'al Hanissim is recited in Shmoneh Esrei, and Tachnun is not recited.

If one did not hear Parshas Zachor on Shabbos, he should have in mind to fulfil his obligation through the Krias Hatorah of Purim. [For this reason, the Ba'al Koreh should intend to be Moitzie anyone who did not hear Parshas Zachor on Shabbos.]

During Krias Hatorah, the word Zecher is first read with a Segol, then again with a Tzeirei (the reverse of Parshas Zachor).

The Sefer Torah remains out during the Megillah reading, and is returned only after Kaddish Tiskabel, as usual. [The one who holds the Sefer Torah remains seated throughout the Megillah reading and associated Brochos.]

If one did not yet give Machatzis Hashekel, he should do so before the Megillah reading.

When the Brocho of Shehecheyanu is recited, all should have in mind the other Mitzvos of Purim; i.e. Mishloach Manos, Matanos Lo'evyonim and Seudas Purim. Preferably, the Gabbai or Ba'al Koreh should announce this.

One should wear his Rashi Tefillin until after the Megillah reading (and davening). The Rebbe would touch his Tefillin Shel Rosh at the word Vikor (8:16), for it refers to Tefillin.

A Bris performed at Shule is conducted right before Megillah. A Bris performed at home is held after davening.

🌀 WORKING ON PURIM

One should not perform manual labour on Purim day (e.g. building, gardening, sewing, laundering, calligraphy and artistic drawing or painting) unless for the sake of Purim or a Mitzvah; or he is so poor that he is without food; or to prevent a financial loss.

One may do light office-work or sell goods and merchandise, but not to the point that it distracts him from the joy of Purim.

One may instruct a non-Jew to perform manual labour on Purim.

🌀 MISHLOACH MANOS

All men and women over Bar/Bas Mitzvah should send at least one Mishloach Manos. Children (of the age of Chinuch) should also do so. [The Rebbeim would distribute three Mishloach Manos packages – to a Kohen, Levi and Yisroel.]

The Mishloach Manos should contain at least two types of (respectable) ready-to-eat foods and/or beverages other than water. [The Rebbeim would include both a food item and beverage.]

Men should send their Mishloach Manos to men, and women should send their Mishloach Manos to women. It should not be a group Mishloach Manos, nor should it be sent anonymously.

Some authorities hold that Mishloach Manos should be delivered through a Shliach. The Shliach may even be a child.

Mishloach Manos should be both sent and received during Purim day (and not the night before, or after Purim).

It is praiseworthy to give Mishloach Manos to many people. [Technically, one doesn't need to adhere to the above-mentioned Halachos with regards to any additional optional Mishloach Manos that one sends. Nevertheless, it is commendable to do so.]

When giving Mishloach Manos to one who is not yet observant, one should remind him to make the appropriate Brochos on each food item.

Mishloach Manos may not be sent to an Ovel (within 12 months of a parent's passing or within 30 days of a spouse, child or sibling's passing). If it was sent, for whatever reason, the Ovel may accept it. One may send Mishloach Manos to an Ovel's spouse or child. The Ovel himself is required to send Mishloach Manos, but should send simple food items.

When sending Mishloach Manos in a new (non-disposable) utensil that requires Tevilas Keilim, it should be performed by the recipient and not by the sender. This is because Tevilas Keilim needs to be performed by the end user.

If the sender already Toiveled the utensil, the recipient must still Toivel the utensil, but without a Brocho. The same applies if the recipient is unsure whether the sender Toiveled the utensil. Therefore, the sender should inform the recipient (e.g. with a label) that the item has not yet been Toiveled, in order that the recipient may Toivel it with a Brocho. [It is best that the Mishloach Manos food does not directly touch a non-Toiveled utensil.]

When it is doubtful that the recipient will Toivel the utensil, the sender may do so on his behalf, with a Brocho, if he first transfers ownership to the recipient, in his absence, via a Kinyan performed with a third-party.

🌀 MATANOS LO'EVYONIM

All men and women over Bar/Bas Mitzvah should give Matanos Lo'evyonim to at least two needy people. Children (of the age of Chinuch) should also do so.

One should use the local currency, and not use Maaser money. [This does not apply to any additional optional Matanos Lo'evyonim that one gives.]

Matanos Lo'evyonim must go specifically to needy people (or Tzedakah organisations devoted to that purpose), and not to other Tzedakah causes.

One need not assess the financial circumstances of a poor person before giving him Matanos Lo'evyonim. Rather, "we give to whomever extends a hand."

Matanos Lo'evyonim should be delivered during Purim day (and not the night before, or after Purim).

If there are no poor people present, one must physically set aside Matanos Lo'evyonim – a verbal pledge is insufficient – and distribute it at the earliest opportunity. Alternatively, one should appoint a Shliach who can distribute it for him in a different location.

It is preferable to allocate more of one's funds to Matanos Lo'evyonim than to Mishloach Manos and Seudas Purim.

One who thought to give a certain sum as Matanos Lo'evyonim may not retract, even though his pledge wasn't verbal.

🌀 MIVTZOIM

One should do all within his or her power to ensure that every Jew hears the Megillah and fulfils all the Mitzvos of Purim. This includes even children of the age of Chinuch.

One should arrange gatherings and events for adults and/or children who are not yet familiar with Purim, and utilize the opportunity to tell the story and laws of Purim, as well as to fulfil the Mitzvos of Purim with each of them. These gatherings should be conducted in as exciting and public a manner as possible.

One should participate in visiting Jewish people who are in hospitals, aged-care facilities, in the army, or in jail.

If the Megillah is read for someone who may be too infirm or incompetent to listen to the whole reading properly, the Brochos should not be recited.

Where appropriate, one should involve his children in Mivtzoim activities.

One who cannot perform Mivtzoim personally should participate financially.

Megillah readings should conclude before sunset (See local calendar). Practically, it (and all other Mivtzoim activities) should conclude considerably earlier, so as not to interfere with Shabbos, whether on the part of the organisers or the participants.

SEUDAS PURIM

One must feast and rejoice on Purim day. In fact, the joy of Purim is even greater than the joy of Yom-Tov.

Since Purim is also Erev Shabbos, the Seudah is conducted earlier than usual, ideally in the morning hours. Otherwise, the feast should start as early as practical in the afternoon, but no later than the beginning of the tenth hour (See local calendar), concluding early enough so as not to interfere with the onset of Shabbos or the Shabbos meal. [If one did not begin before the tenth hour, he may – and should – still conduct a feast afterwards, finishing in time for Shabbos.]

The feast should be timed not to interfere with davening Mincha with a Minyan.

[The practice of Pores Mappah uMekadesh is not recommended for Anash due to the various details and doubts involved in this practice, and especially as it can – even potentially – interfere with davening Maariv properly with a Minyan. Furthermore, in other contexts, the Rebbe expressed that Pores Mappah uMekadesh is not / no longer Chabad practice. The relevant details are therefore omitted.]

Despite the hustle-and-bustle of Purim, one should make a point of learning Torah prior to the Seudah, for a short period of time. Since Purim is thirty days before Pesach, one should begin reviewing the laws of Pesach.

One should feast among family and friends, because a larger crowd increases the joy. One should also invite guests to the Seudah.

The table should be set with a tablecloth. Some have the custom to light candles.

The prevalent custom is to wash, and eat meat and other delicacies. It is also customary to eat Kreplach.

If one wishes to begin the Seudah in one place and continue eating and bentch elsewhere, he must have this in mind when reciting Hamotzie. [If he didn't have this in mind, he should not relocate during the meal. However, if he did so, he may bentch in the place where he finishes eating.]

One should share words of Torah at the meal, especially words of Torah that are associated with the Purim story.

It is customary to share a Purim Torah. The intention is not to use Torah to make a joke or mockery, G-d forbid. Rather one should share a Dvar Torah of the sort that brings joy to those who hear it. [In similar vein, it is forbidden to produce or read any satirical imitations of Gemoro, such as “Masechta Shikorim”.]

WINE AND ALCOHOL

Chazal instituted that one should drink wine on Purim “until he doesn't know the difference between Orur Haman and Boruch Mordechai”. Many Poskim understand this to mean that one must drink to the point of intoxication.

At the same time, the Poskim caution against becoming inebriated when there is even the slightest chance of negative consequences. This especially applies to anyone with a medical issue or a weak constitution; to young teenagers; to anyone whose behaviour may not completely conform with Halacha when inebriated (such as forgetting to make a Brocho properly, bentch or daven Maariv); to anyone who may cause damage, injury or shame to himself or others; to anyone who may cause a Chillul Hashem when inebriated; or this year, if it will interfere with Shabbos and its preparations. Anyone in this category should discharge their obligation by drinking only slightly more wine or alcohol than usual.

It goes without saying that drinking and driving can be deadly and is a severe violation of Halacha. It is also dangerous for an intoxicated person to cross the road himself, and he should therefore be escorted home safely.

The Mitzvah of drinking wine or alcohol does not apply to women and children.

The Rebbe established a year-round ban against people under the age of forty drinking more than four Kelitchlach (shot cups) of alcohol. Some years, the Rebbe made an exception for Purim. On many other occasions, the Rebbe stated explicitly that this ban extends even to Purim. The Rebbe would especially caution the Bochurim about this, and suggested that they fulfil their obligation by increased involvement in “Yeyna shel Torah” (the wine of Torah).

SHABBOS SHUSHAN PURIM

The Mitzvos and joy of Purim should not interfere with Shabbos preparations. One should remember to recite Shnayim Mikrah, to immerse in a Mikvah after midday, and to give Tzedakah for Shabbos prior to candle-lighting (See local calendar).

Hoidu and Posach Elyahu are recited before Mincha.

Av Harachamim and Tzidkosecha are not recited on Shabbos.

Every year, it is fitting to rejoice and eat something special in honour of Shushan Purim. The Rebbe explained that this is even more pronounced on such a year, given that the Purim feast was conducted earlier on Friday due to Shabbos, and Shabbos would surely not wish for the Purim joy to be detracted on its account.

This year, the annual Farbrengen celebrating the joy of Purim is conducted on Shabbos afternoon, in a manner of “b'rov am hadras melech”.

Purim is an auspicious time for the Daled Bavos to be sung. Additionally, the Rebbe frequently instructed that Hop Kozzak and Nyet Nyet Nikovah be sung at the Purim Farbrengens.

During the Purim Farbrengens, the Rebbe would note that Shushan Purim is a fitting time to begin focusing on Maos Chittim; learning the Halachos of Pesach; preparing Mivtzoim plans for Pesach; and arranging the distribution of hand-made Shmurah Matzah.

Matzah is not eaten in the thirty days prior to Pesach. [One may eat Matzah balls or foods containing Matzah meal.]

SUNDAY 16TH OF ADAR

This day is celebrated as the last day of Purim Meshulash in Yerushalayim and other walled cities. Elsewhere, Tachnun is recited as usual. Even so, it is appropriate to rejoice and eat something special.

The Rebbe instructed: Given the Jewish Nation's resolve to never forget Yerushalayim, but rather, to “bring up Yerushalayim at the pinnacle of my joy”, it is appropriate that this day be used worldwide to increase in activities that lead to joy, such as through Torah, Ahavas Yisrael, symbolic gifts of Mishloach Manos and Matanos Lo'evyonim (as appropriate), and gatherings (especially of children) focussing on the meaning of Yerushalayim; i.e. “the complete awe of Hashem”.
