Reminders for First Days of Sukkos - 5786

[May not be posted on any internet website or Whatsapp group etc. without prior consent from the author]

Please post this on the refrigerator or another central location.

- * Experience has shown that it is best if both husband and wife (and children...) review this each day thoroughly so that miscommunications and last-minute panics can be avoided, and Yom Tov can truly be celebrated joyfully.
- * All the sources are in the Hebrew section of the Reminders.
- * Important note: It has been stressed many times, that these are "Reminders" to be able to see things "at a glance" and they are not a compilation of Halocho.

However, since there are several Halochois that require elaboration, the format of the "Reminders" has been kept. Additional details are included at the end of this document, in the "Laws and customs" by Rabbi Lesches, with his permission. They include the Halochois of:

Building the Sukkah - Location of the Sukkah - The Schach - Laying the Schach - Supporting the Schach - Laws of making an Ohel - The Sukkah and decorations - Choosing the Daled Minim - Binding the Daled Minim - Erev Sukkos - Yom Tov Candle Lighting - First two nights of Sukkos - Yaale Veyavo in Bentching - Brocho of Leishev Basukka - Living in the Sukkah - Bentching Lulav - Ownership of Daled Minim - Hallel - Ho'Shaanos - Mivtzoim - First Day of Sukkos - Second Night of Sukkos - Second Day of Sukkos - Ya'aleh Veyavo in Davening - Chol Hamoed - Erev Shabbos Chol Hamoed - Shabbos Chol Hamoed -

A few days before Yom Tov

- 1. Sukkah: Ensure that the Sukkah is properly prepared. For all the laws pertaining to the Sukkah, Schach, cover of the Sukkah etc. please refer to the Laws and Customs.
- 2. Daled Minim: Ascertain that the father bought the Daled Minim (Lulav, Esrog, Hadasim and Arovois). Some buy a kosher set also for the children. For all the laws pertaining to the Daled Minim etc. please refer to the Laws and customs.
- 3. Eiruv Chatzeiros: If it's necessary (example: a two-family house, apartment building etc.) ensure that you have an Eiruv Chatzeiros in place which allows one to carry things from the house to the Sukkah on Shabbos. If you are unsure check with the Rov BEFORE Yomtov and don't wait for the last minute.
- 4. Netilas Yodayim: Ensure that there is a place to wash for Netilas Yodayim in or near the Sukkah (and not over grass etc.).
- 5. Long-lasting candles (like Yohrzeit licht) If one does not have a gas fire lit for the duration of Yom Tov, buy two Yohrtzeit Licht that will last for a minimum of 26 hours each (or one Licht that lasts several days), in order to be able to light candles the second night of Yom Tov or if a fire is needed to be turned on on Yom Tov etc. Those who plan to have a gas fire lit and have hired help should anyway light a Licht as a precaution because sometimes the gas flame is inadvertently turned off....[at the same time you may as well buy these candles also for the last days of Sukkos].

- 6. Honey: Ensure that there is enough honey to be used for the Hamotzie throughout Yom Tov.
- 7. Candles and candle holders: Ensure that you have enough candles for both days of Yom Tov (and Shabbos and the last days). Those that use glass holders for their candles (that must be cleaned before each use) should make sure to have enough clean holders to last for two nights of Yom Tov (as there is a Shailo whether you are permitted to remove the metal washer on Yom Tov). You may also prepare tea lights (just in case).
- 8. Carbon monoxide detector: Those who have the gas on for a prolonged time during YomTov should ensure that they have proper ventilation and that they have a proper carbon monoxide alarm system in place. Make sure to test it a couple of days before YomTov.
- 9. Tzedaka: We add in giving Tzedaka- especially to those who need necessities for Yom Tov, just like Maos Chitim for Pesach.
- 10. Clothes and Jewelry: In honor of Yom Tov one should buy clothes and jewelry for his wife and children according to his means.
- 11. Laundry on Chol Hamoed: Generally one should not do laundry on Chol Hamoed, so prepare accordingly.
- 12. Nails: Generally nails are not cut on Chol Hamoed so make sure to take care of this before Yom Tov. (For more details see Laws and Customs).

- Sukkah: Ascertain that that the Sukkah is all ready.
- Daled Minim: On Erev Yom Tov, the father puts together his Lulav, if possible in the Sukkah (the Rebbe use to do it in the afternoon), and checks to see if anything else needs to be fixed in the Sukkah.

- Shabbos clocks: Make sure that the Shabbos clocks are set for both days of Yom Tov, in the house and in the Sukkah.

First evening of Yom Tov – Monday evening

When Yom Tov begins:

1. If there will not be a gas fire lit throughout Yom Tov, light the long-lasting candle.

- 2. Candle lighting time is 18 (or 23) minutes before Shkiah (see local calendar. For the times in NY see last page). If it is possible, the candles should be lit in the Sukkah (at least two of them). [If one missed the proper time, they can light them later but only from a pre-existing fire].
- 3. Those that are eating elsewhere should not forget to light candles!
- 4. Tzedaka is given for two days of Yom Tov.
- 5. The two Brochos recited are: 1. שהחיינו and 2. שהחיינו.
- 6. A man that lights candles does not recite the Brocho of Shehecheyonu, he will recite it at Kiddush.

Maariv First night of Yom Tov

- We begin from שיר המעלות.
- We say the Amidah for Sholosh Regolim.

Kiddush and the Seuda: First night of Yom Tov

Ushpizin (guests): Ushpizin for tonight (and tomorrow, the first day of Yom Tov) are Avrohom Ovinu and the Baal Shem Tov. [Their commonality is that they both spread Elokus in the world].

- 1. Similar to the first night of Pesach, we begin the meal after nightfall (see local calendar. For the times in NY see last page), and make sure to eat a kezayis before midnight (see local calendar. For the times in NY see last page).
- 2. We eat in the Sukkah. Women are allowed, but not obligated, to eat in the Sukkah and they may say the Brocho הישב בסוכה. [Women that hear Kiddush in the Sukkah but eat inside see Laws and customs how to do this].
- 3. Boys who are not dependent on their mothers should eat in the Sukkah. (This is usually from age 6. If he is smart and mature, this can be even younger.) If the mother sees that the boy is eating in the house, she does not need to reprimand him.
- 4. [Those who are Yotzey Kidush from someone else (i.e. from their father, husband, host etc.), seemingly, should have in mind not to be Yotzey on his Brocho of ישב בסוכה, rather they say it themselves after they recite המוציא. This pertains to all the meals].
- 5. Kiddush: The order is (יְקְסִ"ֹדְנוּשׁ סַוֹכה זַּמְן (the Brocho Asher Bochar Bonu etc.) then we look at the S'chach and recite the Brocho of לישב בסוכה, after which we recite the Brocho of שהחיינו. When reciting the Brocho of Shehecheyonu one has in mind the Yom Toy and it includes the building the Sukkah.
- 6. (A woman that recites Kiddush, does not recite שהחיינו because she already recited it at candle lighting).
- 7. Challah: We dip the Challah in honey. (Salt is also placed on the table. Some Chassidim relate that the Rebbe would, during the meal, also dip a piece (some say that the Rebbe dipped 3 pieces) of Challah in salt three times).
- 8. In Birchas Hamozon we add:
 - יעלה ויבוא.
 - (If one forgot but did not yet say "Boruch" of the next Brocho, then he says."...ברוך... אשר נתן..." (as written in the sidur). However, if he already began the next Brocho by saying "Boruch" he returns to the beginning of Birchas Hamozon).
 - We also add: Horachamon for Yom Tov and Horachamon for Sukkos.

Simchas Beis Hasho'eva

The Simcha and celebration of Simchas Beis Hasho'eva begins from the first night of Sukkos.

The First Day of Yom Tov — Tuesday ט"ו תשרי

- 1. We don't eat before benching on the Lulav, and healthier people don't taste or drink anything.
- 2. In the morning we get up early [Men go to the Mikva] in order to bentch on the Lulav and the ינים. Preferably this should be done in the Sukkah, if not we can bentch in the house.
- 3. [I recall hearing that the Rebbe once said that after Bentching on the Lulav, one should eat some Mezonos and recite the Brocho of Leishev BaSukkah, (which can also be connected to the Netilas Lulav). Therefore, it's advisable to prepare this prior to the Benching on the Lulav].

REMINDERS FOR THE FIRST DAYS OF SUKOS 5786 – RABBI LEVI Y. GARELIK – SICHOS.ONLINE

- 4. Stand facing מזרח, take the Lulav in your right hand [one who is a lefthanded see blow #5], the spine of the Lulav facing you, and recite the Brocho of על נטילת לולב. Then take the Esrog in your left hand and recite the Brocho of שהחיינו. At the end of the Brocho put them together and shake them to the six directions. See the details in "Laws and Customs".
- 5. One, who is left-handed, takes the Lulav in his left hand and the Esrog in his right.
- 6. On the first two days of Sukos, first the father makes the blessing on the Lulav.
- 7. If he later gives it to his wife and children above Bar/Bas Mitzva, he has to say to them that he gives it "Matono Al Mnas Lehachzir" (-a gift with the condition that it be returned). To the children below Bar/Bas Mitzva its best if they make the Brocho on their own set. [If they don't have one of their own since there is a dispute amongst the Poskim what to do the best options are that either the father holds the child's hands or the the Daled Minim together with the child¹ or another option is that he loans it to them for chinuch purposes]. See the details in "Laws and Customs".
- 8. Women shake the Lulav only once (and they do not do the "Naanuim" shaking of the Lulav in 6 directions).

Davening First day of Sukkos

- 1. Arrange that the children should go to shul for Birchas Kohanim towards the end of Musaf.
- 2. Bring the Daled Minim to Shul.
- 3. After the Amidah for Sholosh Regolim we recite the entire Hallel, Hoshaanos, Shir Shel Yom, Ledovid Hashem Oiri [in shul we read the Torah and Haftoro] and Musaf of Sholosh Regolim. Birchas Kohanim.

Kiddush and the meal First day of Sukkos

- 1. Kiddush: אתקינו then (look to the S'chach and recite) אלישב בסוכה.
- 2. Challah: like last night
- 3. In Birchas Hamozoin we add:
 - יעלה ויבוא (If one forgot see last night in the meal).
 - We also add: Horachamon for Yom Tov and Horachamon for Sukkos.

During the Day

- * We go on Mivtzah Lulav to encourage as many Yidden as possible to do the Mitzvah...

- 3. The two Brochos recited are: 1. שהחיינו. 2 של יום טוב.

Each Jew, as well, has their particular place for their Neshama to impact.]

- * Ascertain that all the women and girls (especially the guests) lit candles. If there aren't enough candles, don't rely that they're going to light later, rather borrow candles from a neighbor, and they should light before Kiddush.
- * Kiddush: The order for Kiddush is: יִם "דוש which stands for: יַיִן (wine, the Brocho of Bore Pri Hagofen), קידוש (The Brocho of Asher Bochar Bonu Mikol Om...), זַמן (The Brocho of Shehecheyonu) and סַובה (The Brocho of Leishev Basuka) (as opposed to last night that first we recited Leishev Basuka and then Shehecheyonu).

W BUILDING THE SUKKAH

It is preferable for every family to have their own personal Sukkah, rather than rely on a shared or communal Sukkah.

One may not use Maaser funds for his own Sukkah, but may use it to provide a Sukkah for others, for the Shule's Sukkah, or for Mivtzoim.

It is a Mitzvah to build the Sukkah on the day after Yom Kippur.

It is not Chabad custom to be particular about building the Sukkah personally.

The Sukkah should be comprised of four proper and complete walls. If this is not possible, the Sukkah should be made of three complete walls. If any of the three walls are incomplete – whether vertically or horizontally – its Kashrus should be reviewed by someone knowledgeable in the relevant Halachos.

A roof at the edge of the Sukkah does not disqualify it, provided it is less than four Amos (192cm) wide, and the wall of the Sukkah extends at least to the height of the Schach. The same applies when there is an eave or roof overhanging the Sukkah, but with the additional requirement that the Schach (or some other material at the same height as the Schach) continues all the way to the wall of the Sukkah. Of course, one does not fulfil the Mitzvah of Sukkah under these areas (unless they are less than four Tefachim – 32cm – wide).

The Sukkah must be sturdy enough to remain stationary during an ordinary gust of wind. [Canvas or fabric walls are not ideal, as they flap in the wind. Even if "Lavud straps" are used, they may loosen without anyone noticing. If such walls are used, one should constantly ensure that the "Lavud straps" are very tight at all times, and that they surround the Sukkah on all four sides, and not just three.]

If the Sukkah is detached from the house, it is ideal to set up a washing station near the Sukkah in order to minimize any interruption between Kiddush, Netilas Yadayim, and the Seudah. [The water should not drain onto earth or grass.]

It is not Chabad custom to use floorboards by default. However, it is proper not to build the Sukkah over earth or grass without floorboards. Otherwise, on Shabbos and Yom Tov, great care must be taken that liquids do not spill onto the grass, pips or seeds do not fall to the ground, and the ground is neither swept nor levelled in any way.

LOCATION OF THE SUKKAH

One should ensure that there are no tree branches hanging over the site of the Sukkah. [A Rav should be consulted about trimming branches of a fruit-bearing tree.]

According to Halacha, if a tree on another property prevents one from building a Sukkah on his property, he may cut down the neighbour's overhanging branches as required. [Of course, in the interest of neighbourly relations, it is wise to discuss it with him beforehand.] However, the neighbour cannot be forced to pay the costs without prior agreement. The branches (and their disposal) belong to the neighbour.

If anything is suspended above the Schach – e.g. tree branches, clotheslines, cables, wires, crossbeams or pergolas – its Kashrus should be reviewed by someone well-versed in the relevant Halachos.

The Sukkah is invalid if it was built in a place which is insect-infested, foul-smelling, unsafe or otherwise uncomfortable from the outset.

One should avoid building a Sukkah on public property, someone else's property, or commonly owned property, without the appropriate permissions. Similarly, a Sukkah should not directly block the neighbour's windows without permission. A stationary Sukkah mobile should be parked legally.

THE SCHACH

The Schach is comprised of detached inedible plant matter which was never susceptible to Tumah.

The Schach should not be prone to excessive shrinkage or leaf shedding, to the degree that insufficient Schach will remain by the end of Sukkos. [If one did not adhere to this, the Sukkah is disqualified from the outset.]

The Schach should not cause discomfort to the Sukkah's inhabitants, e.g. if it smells foul or sheds leaves constantly. [If one did not adhere to this and the Sukkah is already built, it may be used.]

One should purchase Schach only from a reliable vendor who ensures that there is no concern of Gezel.

It is customary not to use construction timber for Schach.

A mat may be used as Schach only if it has been manufactured for shade or fencing, and not for sitting or lying down on.

LAYING THE SCHACH

The Sukkah walls should all be assembled before the Schach is put on.

The Schach should be detached from its place of growth before being laid over the Sukkah. Schach bundles containing more than 25 pieces should be unbundled prior to being laid out over the Sukkah. [If this was not adhered to, the Kashrus of the Schach is subject to a number of variables.]

If the Sukkah has a rain cover, one should ensure that the Sukkah is uncovered when the Schach is laid out. Similarly, Schach on a Sukkah mobile should be placed (or replaced) only when there is no roof or tree overhead.

If necessary, one may lay the Schach beneath overhanging tree branches before cutting those branches.

The Schach must either be laid within thirty days of Sukkos, or must be laid expressly for the sake of the Mitzvah of Sukkos. [If these criteria were not met, one may correct it in retrospect by either lifting and replacing all of the Schach, or by adding new Schach over an area at least 8cmx8cm, or by adding any amount of Schach that extends across the entire width or breadth of the Sukkah.]

The Schach should be laid on the Sukkah by a Jewish male over Bar Mitzvah (who is obligated in the Mitzvah of Sukkah). After the fact, if it was laid out by anyone else, a Jewish male over Bar Mitzvah should pick up and place down at least one piece.

It is Chabad custom to use lots of Schach, but not to the point that it is watertight. A small hole is left somewhere in the Schach for the stars to be seen. At a minimum, the Schach should create more shade than sunlight.

There should be no gap of airspace in the Schach exceeding 24cmx24cm. [A larger gap is sometimes acceptable, but that depends on many factors. The Mitzvah of Sukkah is in any case not fulfilled beneath it, so it is best avoided.]

The Schach must be sturdy enough to remain intact during an ordinary gust of wind. [If in an enclosed place, the Schach must still be sturdy enough to withstand the wind were it an exposed place.] Otherwise, they must be secured in an acceptable manner (see the section "Supporting the Schach"). This is of special concern when using mats.

If Schach blows out of place on Yom Tov or Shabbos, one may not fix it, since the Schach is Muktzeh. However, if the Sukkah is no longer Kosher (or its status is questionable), one should consult with a Rov as to whether a Goy can fix it.

SUPPORTING THE SCHACH

The Schach should not be directly secured or supported by any object which is unfit to be used as Schach. [Examples: Metal rods or cables, nails, cable ties, nylon thread, nearby trees, processed fibre thread, ropes.] However, these materials may be used to secure or support the Schach indirectly. [E.g. To secure or support beams supporting the Schach.]

The Schach may be tied down with reeds or unprocessed fibre threads, and may also be directly supported by the Sukkah walls (or any adjacent walls or roofs).

Although construction timber is not used for Schach, it may nevertheless be used to directly support or secure the Schach.

A Schach mat may be used when strung together with unprocessed fibre threads. If strung together with processed fibres or metal threads, it may still be used if laid out so that the individual reeds will remain in place even without the threads. [E.g. the mat reeds should be laid perpendicular to the supporting beams, with several beams placed on top to hold the mat down.]

If one did not adhere to any of the requirements listed in this section and the Sukkah is already built, it may be used and there is no obligation to fix it.

LAWS OF MAKING AN OHEL

On Yom Tov or Shabbos, it is forbidden to fully create or remove a temporary "roof" whose purpose is to provide any sort of shelter. However, this restriction only applies when there is at least one Tefach (8cm) of airspace in height beneath this Ohel. Therefore, one may use a rain cover without restriction if it lies directly on top of the Schach.

If one wishes to use a rain cover that will be raised at least one Tefach higher than the Schach, or which will be spread below the Schach, one must ensure that it is extended at least one Tefach across the width of the entire Sukkah (in addition to any space taken up by the actual roll) before Yom Tov. This minimal amount must remain open for the entire duration of Yom Tov and Shabbos.

A rain-cover which is designed like a hinged door may be used on Shabbos and Yom Tov without restriction.

When removing the rain cover on Shabbos or Yom Tov, one should ensure that any water remaining on it does not pour onto grass or earth, unless the ground is still completely saturated from the rain.

When using a rain cover of any type, one must ensure that the Sukkah is uncovered when the Schach is laid out, as well as at the onset of Yom Tov (i.e. from sunset until Tzeis). One should also remember to open the cover whenever the Sukkah is being used.

On Yom Tov or Shabbos, one may set up a temporary partition for shelter or privacy. One may not do so if it is required to validate the Sukkah, but one may ask a Goy to do so. [This is most frequently an issue when the primary walls of the Sukkah are hinged or foldable.]

THE SUKKAH AND DECORATIONS

Unless absolutely unavoidable, the Sukkah should not be dismantled or made unusable until after Simchas Torah.

It is not Chabad custom for the Sukkah to be decorated. Nevertheless, if decorations are hung from the Schach, they should hang no lower than 4 Tefachim (32cm) from the Schach. Similarly, decorative chains should droop no lower than 4 Tefachim.

Sukkah decorations are Muktzeh on Shabbos and Yom Tov, and no personal benefit may be derived from them until after Simchas Torah, even if they fall off. Nevertheless, these prohibitions may be avoided by verbalizing the following stipulation before the onset of Sukkos: "I do not separate myself from using the decorations any time I desire."

Similarly, the Sukkah walls and Schach are Muktzeh on Shabbos and Yom Tov. Until after Simchas Torah, one may not derive personal benefit from them in a manner which disrupts their primary use, such as snapping off a sliver of wood to use as a toothpick. [One may rest items on, or in, the walls of the Sukkah, since this does not disturb their function.] These restrictions apply even if the Sukkah is dismantled during Sukkos (e.g. a Sukkah mobile).

A verbal stipulation is ineffective in permitting the Schach. A verbal stipulation also does not help with regard to the walls of a Sukkah built prior to Yom Tov. However, if a Sukkah is built during Chol Hamoied and will be dismantled before Shabbos or the last days of Yom Tov (e.g. a Sukkah mobile), its walls remain permitted if one verbalized the following stipulation before first sitting in the Sukkah: "I do not separate myself from using the walls any time I desire."

All the prohibitions in this section only apply after at least one male over Bar Mitzvah (who is obligated in the Mitzvah of Sukkah) sat in the Sukkah at least once for the sake of the Mitzvah.

CHOOSING THE DALED MINIM

One should only buy the Daled Minim from a reliable vendor who verifies that they are not grafted, and that there is no concern of Gezel, Shemitah, Tevel and Orlah. One should not buy the Daled Minim from a child under Bar Mitzvah, as he does not have the Halachic capacity to transfer ownership.

It is not Chabad custom to be particular about paying for the Daled Minim before Sukkos. [Of course, this is acceptable only with the vendor's agreement.]

One should endeavour to purchase a Daled Minim set which is Mehudar (beautiful). It is not appropriate to boast about the beauty of one's set.

It is Chabad custom to use an Esrog of the Calabria ("Yanove") variety that actually grew in Calabria. The next best option is an Esrog of that lineage even if it grew elsewhere.

The Esrog is preferably yellow, like beeswax, rather than green.

An Esrog is acceptable if the Pittam fell off due to natural causes whilst still on the tree. [An indentation in the place of the Pittam generally indicates that it fell off whilst the Esrog was still growing.]

If the Pittam fell off after the Esrog was detached from the tree, it is acceptable only if the base of the Pittam is still intact and protrudes above the tip of the Esrog.

Greater emphasis is placed on the beauty of the actual Esrog than on whether it is missing a Pittam (in a Halachically acceptable manner).

Blettlach (leaf marks) and light red/brown discolouration do not disqualify an Esrog.

White, black or deep red/brown discolouration that can be seen at first glance when the Esrog is held at arm's length: If located on the upper side of the Esrog, from the area where the Esrog begins to slope inwards, it is Possul. If located on the underside of the Esrog in the area of the stem, it is Kosher. If located anywhere else, it is Kosher – unless the discolouration spans the majority, or there are two such spots (or more).

One must purchase a Lulav whose central leaf is completely closed. Nevertheless, the Lulav may still be used if a minority of the central leaf split. On Chol Hamoied, it may be used even if the central leaf completely split, as long as the actual spine is intact.

If the top of the central leaf is covered with "Moch", it is considered closed.

The Lulav is acceptable if its tip is sunburnt, but not if it is snipped.

Preferably, the Lulav is:

- Not rounded at the top ("Knepplach").
- Has "Moch" (bark).
- Is tall and straight.
- Has a straight and well-centred spine.
- Is not thin.

It is best to select Hadassim and Aravos whose leaves are all intact and fresh.

Chabad custom is to add at least three extra Haddasim to the basic minimum of three.

There are many other Halachos relevant to the Kashrus of the Daled Minim. If in doubt, approval should be sought from someone well-versed in the relevant Halachos.

It is best that a separate Daled Minim set be purchased for a boy under Bar Mitzvah if he is old enough to perform the Na'anuim. (For more details, see the section "Ownership of Daled Minim".)

It is not Chabad custom to store the Daled Minim in elaborate containers.

One may not use Maaser funds for his own (or dependent's) Daled Minim, but may use it to arrange sets for others, or Mivtzoim.

BINDING THE DALED MINIM

Ideally, one personally binds the Daled Minim in the Sukkah on Erev Sukkos.

Five rings are used when binding the Lulav. These are all prepared before binding the Lulav. [Lulav baskets are not used.]

Two rings are placed on the Lulav itself. These are positioned so that the Haddasim and Aravos obscure them (at least partially).

Three rings are used to bind the lower end of the Lulav with the Haddasim and Aravos. These three rings should span no more than a Tefach (8cm).

With the Lulav lying horizontally and the spine facing upward, the Haddassim are positioned, one to the right, one to the left, and one on the actual spine, inclined slightly to the right. [The same pattern is followed for any additional Haddassim.] One Aravah is positioned to the right of the Lulav, and the other to the left. The Aravos should be obscured by the Haddasim.

When binding, one must ensure that the Lulav spine extends at least another Tefach above the Haddasim and Aravos. [The Lulav spine ends at the point where leaves no longer branch out of the middle leaf.] If necessary, the Haddasim and Aravos may be shortened, ensuring that they remain at least three Tefachim (24cm) in length, as measured from the top of the stem to the bottom leaf.

The bottom of the Haddasim and Aravos should be flush with the bottom of the Lulav.

Shortening the Haddasim and Aravos must be done from the bottom of the stem. If it is shortened at the top, the Aravos are Possul, and the Hadassim should not be used unless there are no others available.

If the Lulav was not bound on Erev Yom Tov, or became undone, one may not make rings on Yom Tov. However, one may wrap a Lulav leaf around and around, and insert the tip into this makeshift "ring" without tying or making a knot.

EREV SUKKOS

On Erev Sukkos, one should not donate blood or undergo any procedures or tests involving blood loss. [This does not apply in cases of great need, and certainly not when it is Pikuach Nefesh.]

On Erev Sukkos, one should not eat (a meal) in the Sukkah.

The Mitzvah of V'Samechta B'Chagecha entails eating meat, wine and delicacies; providing new clothing or jewellery for one's wife according to his means; and giving sweets to the children. These should be arranged in advance.

One may not launder on Chol Hamoied. Therefore, any laundry should be tended to before Sukkos.

When necessary, one should take a haircut in honour of Sukkos.

Nails should be trimmed in honour of Yom Tov. [Another reason to tend to them on Erev Sukkos is because they otherwise cannot be trimmed on Chol Hamoied.]

One immerses in a Mikvah after midday.

Yom Tov is an especially appropriate time for guests. This is emphasized on Sukkos, because the function of a Sukkah is to unite all Klal Yisroel. Additionally, hosting guests is especially connected to the Ushpizin.

It is forbidden to begin a full meal of bread once the tenth Halachic hour of the day begins (see local calendar), in order to properly enjoy the meal of the first night. However, one may snack in small quantities.

Even though all meals will be eaten in the Sukkah, nevertheless, a tablecloth should be placed on the table in the house, in honour of Yom Tov.

One should give Tzedakah on Erev Sukkos. The Rebbe emphasized that the Yom Tov requirements of the needy be met, including a set of Daled Minim and a Sukkah

YOM TOV CANDLE-LIGHTING

One should arrange a pre-existing flame with which to light the candles on the second night of Sukkos.

Prior to candle-lighting, one should give Tzedakah for the two days of Yom Tov.

Candle-lighting (Monday night) is at (see local calendar). The Brochos are Lehadlik Ner Shel Yom Tov and Shehecheyanu. [If one incorrectly concluded Shel Shabbos Kodesh, but realized within the time frame it takes to say three words, she corrects her mistake. Otherwise, she must repeat the Brocho. If one forgot Shehecheyanu, she should have in mind to be Yoitzei during Kiddush.]

The candles are lit in the Sukkah and kept there until the end of the meal. At the very least, they should be lit in the Sukkah and moved only after some time has elapsed and some benefit has been derived. If even this is not feasible or safe, the candles may be lit indoors, preferably in a place where they can be seen from the Sukkah, and one should ensure that practical benefit is derived from the candles after nightfall. If possible, the candles should be brought back to the Sukkah for the Yom Tov meal.

If lighting at home but eating the Seudah elsewhere, one must ensure that practical benefit is derived from the candles after nightfall (such as arranging for someone to eat by its light, or lighting in a location that needs to be used and would otherwise remain dark).

Since it is Yom Tov, if one neglected to light at the proper time, one may – and should – light candles on Yom Tov itself, from a pre-existing flame.

When a man is required to light candles, he does not recite Shehecheyanu, as he will be doing so in Kiddush. [Therefore, it is best that he lights candles right before

Kiddush, so that his Shehecheyanu is linked to both.]

FIRST TWO NIGHTS OF SUKKOS

Throughout Sukkos, there is no Torah obligation to eat in the Sukkah, since one can avoid foods and quantities that would require it. The exception to this is the first two nights of Sukkos. Therefore, these night meals must begin after Tzeis Hakochavim (see local calendar).

During Kiddush on the first night, Leisheiv Basukkah is recited before Shehecheyanu, as the Shehecheyanu pertains to the Mitzvah of eating in the Sukkah as well. One should have this in mind when reciting Shehecheyanu, in addition to having the Kiddush of Yom Tov in mind. On the second night, the order is reversed.

Women who hear Kiddush in the Sukkah but choose to eat in the house should first eat a kezayis of bread or Mezonos in the Sukkah, or drink a revi'is (86ml) of grape juice or wine. This is because Kiddush must be heard in the same place where the meal begins. Alternatively, they should stand in the place where they will eat and hear Kiddush from there. [Although this is an absolute requirement only when the Sukkah is detached from the house, it is still preferable to act accordingly when the Sukkah is attached to the house.]

A woman who needs to make her own Kiddush does not say Shehecheyanu, as she already recited it at candle-lighting. [If a woman forgot Shehecheyanu at candle-lighting, she should have in mind at Kiddush to be Yotzei.]

At least a kezayis of bread must be eaten before midnight (see local calendar). [A kezayis is a measurement of volume equal to the displacement of 29ml of water. In practice, anything less dense than water weighing 29 grams is most certainly more than a kezayis.] This kezayis is eaten in the shortest time frame possible, and at the very least, within nine minutes.

While eating the kezayis, one should intend to fulfil the special obligation of eating in the Sukkah on the first night(s). This is in addition to the intention that this Mitzvah commemorates the exodus from Egypt (as explained later).

During each Yom Tov meal of Sukkos, the Challah is dipped (three times) in honey. [More than a K'beitzah must be eaten, as per every Yom Tov and Shabbos.]

One should drink (a revi'is of) wine every day of Sukkos. This should be paid special attention by those who do not make their own Kiddush.

Simchas Beis Hashoeva celebrations begin on the first night of Sukkos and are conducted throughout, with singing, clapping and dancing.

№ YA'ALEH VEYAVO IN BENTCHING

If one forgets Ya'aleh Veyavo in bentching, but remembers before saying Hashem's name at Bonei Yerushalayim, he goes back. If one remembered after that, but before beginning the next Brocho, he recites the extra Brocho printed in the Bentcher. If one already began even the first word (Boruch) of the next Brocho, one must begin bentching again if it is Yom Tov, but not if it is Chol Hamoied.

On Yom Tov, both the Horachamon for Yom Tov and Sukkos are recited, in that order.

On Chol Hamoied, only the Horachamon for Sukkos is recited.

PROCHO OF LEISHEV BASUKKAH

The Brocho of Leisheiv Basukkah is recited only when eating more than a K'beitzah of Hamotzie or Mezonos. [A K'beitzah is a measurement of volume equal to the displacement of 57ml of water.] A K'beitzah can be consumed more expediently with cake than cookies or biscuits.

One first recites Hamotzie or Mezonos, followed by Leisheiv Basukkah, whilst seated. If one forgets Leisheiv Basukkah, he recites it as soon as he remembers. Even if he has already finished eating, he still recites the Brocho as long as he is still in the Sukkah.

One should look at the Schach before reciting the Brocho of Leisheiv Basukkah.

When one drinks wine or grape juice, or any other beverage typically sipped at length or enjoyed with company (such as tea, coffee and other alcoholic beverages), one does not recite Leisheiv Basukkah. However, it is best to drink such beverages after already reciting Leisheiv Basukkah on Hamotzie or Mezonos.

After one has already recited Leisheiv Basukkah, he must recite it again if:

- He left the Sukkah for an hour or two even without intending to be away that long.
- He intended to be away from the Sukkah for an hour or two – even if he returned sooner than planned.
- He visits another Sukkah. Even if he began a meal in the first Sukkah with the intention of finishing it in the second Sukkah (in which case a new Brocho on bread is not required), he still needs to recite Leisheiv Basukkah. [In many instances, Leisheiv Basukkah is required when visiting another

Sukkah even without eating there. To avoid confusion, the custom is to always eat more than a K'beitzah of Hamotzie or Mezonos when visiting another Sukkah.]

Although women are exempt from the Mitzvah of Sukkah, they may make the Brocho of Leisheiv Basukkah nonetheless.

Boys are trained to eat in the Sukkah from around the age of five or six, as per the child's maturity, and they must recite the Brocho. [A father is obligated to ensure that his child eats in the Sukkah. Others are not obligated in this regard and may give the child food even if he will eat it outside the Sukkah. Nevertheless, one may not feed the child directly or actively encourage him to eat outside the Sukkah.]

LIVING IN THE SUKKAH

The Sukkah commemorates the Clouds of Glory that protected Bnei Yisroel from the sun and heat of the desert. Therefore, whenever in the Sukkah, one's intention is that this Mitzvah commemorates the Exodus from Egypt.

If the Sukkah contains a section of Schach that is Possul (e.g. the edge of the Sukkah lies beneath the overhanging roof of the house or under the edge of a rain cover), one must ensure not only to sit beneath an area of the Schach that is Kosher, but also, that the part of the table used for eating is situated there as well.

It is Chabad custom to eat and drink in the Sukkah even in the rain or inclement weather, and a Leisheiv Basukkah is still recited when eating more than a K'beitzah of Hamotzie or Mezonos. [As mentioned earlier, it is forbidden on Yom Tov or Shabbos to create a temporary roof whose purpose is to provide any sort of shelter. Therefore, one should not cover food with a box or bag to protect it from rain, unless the airspace beneath is less than one Tefach (8 cm) in height.]

It is Chabad custom to refrain from eating or drinking anything — even the smallest amount — outside the Sukkah. The Rebbe Rashab would even take medicine only in the Sukkah.

When eating in the Sukkah on Yom Tov or Shabbos, one should be mindful about the prohibitions of trapping or killing insects. [Although trapping insects is forbidden, one is not required to inspect a container before closing it to ensure that there are no insects inside.]

One must treat the Sukkah respectfully. One may not wash dishes in the Sukkah, keep dirty dishes there, store tools or bikes, cook, or hang laundry. Similarly, one should not bring the rubbish bin into the Sukkah, but rather, carry waste to a rubbish bin stationed outside.

Throughout Sukkos, one spends as much time in the Sukkah as practical. One should learn in the Sukkah, unless he finds it hard to focus there, or he needs constant access to his Seforim library, or he wishes to learn in a Beis Hamedrash.

One should daven with a Minyan in Shule. However, if circumstances require him to daven at home, he should do so in the Sukkah, unless he cannot focus there.

Chabad practice is not to sleep in the Sukkah.

One mentions the daily Ushpizin and Chassidishe Ushpizin by sharing a Dvar Torah or story pertaining to them. There are many Sichos which focus on the common denominator between that day's Ushpizin, as well as the contrasts between them.

The order of the Ushpizin:

- 1. Avraham / Baal Shem Tov.
- 2. Yitzchok / Mezritcher Maggid.
- 3. Yaakov / Alter Rebbe.
- 4. Moshe / Mittele Rebbe.
- 5. Aharon / Tzemach Tzeddek.
- 6. Yosef / Rebbe Maharash.
- 7. Dovid / Rebbe Rashab.

One may assume that a Sukkah's owner consents to others using it for the sake of the Mitzvah, provided it would otherwise be vacant at that time and is left afterwards in exactly the same state.

W BENTCHING LULAV

All males over Bar Mitzvah must bentch Lulav. Boys who are of the age of Chinuch (i.e. old enough to understand the concept of bentching Lulav) must also do so.

Women and girls are technically exempt, though the custom is for them to bentch Lulav anyway.

It is especially appropriate to go to Mikvah before bentching Lulav.

Men in good health should not eat anything before bentching Lulav. [One should not be stringent if there are any health concerns, or if he will obtain the Daled Minim only after midday.] Similarly, one should not learn or perform work before bentching Lulav.

It is best to bentch Lulav as soon as possible after sunrise, especially on the first day (see local calendar). Nevertheless, one may bentch Lulav any time after sunrise until sunset ((see local calendar) on the first day). In extenuating circumstances (as can occur on Mivtzoim), or after the fact, it is acceptable if performed after dawn ((see local calendar) on first day) with a Brocho, or before Tzeis ((see local calendar) on first day) without a Brocho (unless it is Friday evening or Shmini Atzeres evening).

Before bentching Lulav, one first fulfils the Mitzvah of Krias Shma, since it is more frequent.

Preferably, one bentches Lulav in the Sukkah. One stands facing east and holds the Lulav in the right hand, with the Lulav spine facing him. After reciting the Brocho of Al Netilas Lulav, one picks the Esrog up with the left hand. A left-handed person holds the Lulav in his left hand, and the Esrog in his right hand. [When on Mivtzoim, one should ensure that those fulfilling the Mitzvah do not hold the Lulav and Esrog in the wrong hand, and certainly not all in one hand.]

On the first day of Sukkos, the Esrog is picked up before Shehecheyanu is recited. However, it is not joined to the Lulav until the conclusion of the Brocho.

When joining the Esrog to the Lulav, the upper third of the Esrog should touch the bottom of the Lulav. This is accomplished by holding the Esrog at a slight diagonal.

One should ensure that there is no Chatzitzah (barrier) between his hands and the Daled Minim. Thus, one should remove any finger rings. [When on Mivtzoim, one should ensure that those fulfilling the Mitzvah are not wearing gloves or holding anything (e.g. a wallet or keys) that may constitute a Chatzitzah.]

Na'anuim: The Daled Minim are extended in all directions, three times per direction. One does not turn his body, but merely moves the Daled Minim in each direction.

The order of the Na'anuim:

- South (i.e. south-east).
- North (i.e. north-east).
- East (i.e. centre east).
- Up. [The Daled Minim are returned in a straight downward motion to approximately the height of the chest before being brought back to the chest.]
- Down. [The Daled Minim are returned in a straight upward motion to around the height of the chest before being brought back to the chest.]
- West (i.e. twice south-west and the third time centre-west).

The Daled Minim are extended forward from the chest and then returned to the chest, physically touching the place where one beats his fist when reciting Ashamnu. Each time the Lulav is extended forward, it is given a slight shake before being returned to the chest.

During the Na'anuim, the Daled Minim themselves should be kept perfectly upright and not inclined in any direction. One ensures that the tip of the Lulav does not come into contact with the wall, ceiling or Schach. The Esrog is concealed by the hand, besides the very last time (i.e. centre-west), when it is slightly revealed.

It is preferable to eat Mezonos right after bentching Lulav, so that the Brocho of Leishev Basukkah is recited in connection with the Mitzvah of Daled Minim as well.

Throughout Sukkos (and on Shmini Atzeres) one should not smell the Hadassim or Esroq.

Women are generally not meticulous about waving the Lulav in all six directions.

W OWNERSHIP OF DALED MINIM

On the first two days of Sukkos, one must own the set of Daled Minim he uses to perform the Mitzvah. [However, one may use a borrowed set for Hallel and Hosha'anos.]

When giving the Daled Minim to someone over the age of Bar Mitzvah, one should expressly state that it is a "Matono Al M'nas Lehachzir"; i.e. a gift conditional on its return. This is especially important on the first day of Sukkos. [If one neglected to say this, it is still the presumed intention – provided that the giver and recipient are both aware that one must own the set of Daled Minim.]

There is a dispute as to whether a woman must own the Daled Minim in order to recite a Brocho. It is therefore preferable that it be given to her as a "Matono Al M'nas Lehachzir". [Halachically, items given to a married woman normally become the property of her husband. Nevertheless, Daled Minim given to her for the sake of the Mitzvah are regarded as her own, since it is obvious that they were given on condition that they not become her husband's.]

As mentioned earlier, a boy of the age of Chinuch is required to bentch Lulav. According to many Rishonim, the Mitzvah of Chinuch requires him to own the set he uses. At the same time, a boy under Bar Mitzvah has the Halachic capacity to acquire, but not to give back. Therefore, one should not give the Daled Minim to a child as a "Matono Al M'nas Lehachzir". Rather, his father should purchase a set of Daled Minim for him.

If this is impractical or beyond one's means, one may rely on the Rishonim who do not require a boy under Bar Mitzvah to own the set he uses. In this case, the owner of the Daled Minim should hold the boy's hands or the Lulav while the Brocho is made, intending not to give it to him.

[Technically, another solution is to give the Daled Minim to the boy only after all adults have bentched Lulav. However, this is not a practical solution if the Daled Minim will be used later for Mivtzoim, or if one has several boys. Furthermore, some opinions hold that the Daled Minim must be owned on the second day of Sukkos as well, which is a problem if it was given to a boy on the first day.]

W HALLEL

Full Hallel is recited. When reciting Hallel, one may not interrupt it - other than for those things that one may respond to during the Brochos of Krias Shema. [I.e. If the Chazzan recites Kedushah, one responds Kodosh, Boruch and Yimloch. When the Chazzan says HaE-I Hakodosh (or Shomea Tefillah during Chol Hamoied), one answers Omein. When the Chazzan says Modim, one answers the three words Modim Anachnu Loch. When the Chazzan recites Kaddish, one answers Omein Yehei Shmei etc, and Omein to d'amiran b'olmo. One also answers Borchu and Omein when the Brochos are recited before and after an Aliyah or Haftorah.

It is preferable to recite Hallel with the Minyan. If one is not up to the Minyan, this creates a dilemma; on the one hand it is appropriate to recite Hallel with the congregation, and on the other hand, it is appropriate that one davens in the correct order. For this reason, the Rebbeim were always punctilious about being up to Hallel when the Minyan recited it on Yom Tov.

If one forgot Hallel, he should recite it with a Brocho as soon as he remembers, up until Tzeis Hakochavim.

If one mistakenly recited half-Hallel, he must repeat the entire Hallel (without a Brocho).

During Hallel, the Na'anuim are performed as described earlier, at the following places:

- At the first Hoidu; one direction per word, besides the word Hashem.
- At each "Anna Hashem Hoshiah Nah"; two directions per word, besides the word Hashem.
- At the last Hoidu, the first time that it is recited; one direction per word, besides the word Hashem.

In general, the Rebbe would hold the Lulav for the entire Hallel and pick up the Esrog only for the Na'anuim.

W HOSHA'ANOS

For Hosha'anos, a Torah is held at the Bimah by someone who does not have a set of Daled Minim (or by anyone in the year of Aveilus who does not circle the Bimah). If all present have a set, the Torah is placed on the Bimah. The Aron Hakoidesh remains open throughout Hosha'anos.

When reciting the Hosha'anos unique to that day, the initial phrases are recited quietly whilst standing in one place, and each phrase is preceded with the word Hosha'anah. The phrases from the letter "Samech" or "Ayin" onwards are recited aloud after the Chazzan, and each phrase is preceded and followed with the word Hosha'anah. These phrases are timed to coincide with one complete circuit around the Bimah.

During Hosha'anos, the Lulav is held with the right hand and the Esrog with the left. The Rebbe would generally hold them joined together and touching his chest.

One who does not have a set of Daled Minim does not circle the Bimah. [It is best to borrow a set in order to participate.]

The last Posuk (i.e. L'Maan Da'as) is said aloud when the Sefer Torah is returned to the Aron Hakoidesh. One holds the Daled Minim until this time.

One who is davening without a Minyan should still circle the Bimah. If at home where there is no Bimah, one should still circle a table. (Some maintain that a Sefer should be placed on the table.)

On Yom Tov, one may return the Lulav to the moist towel or water that it was already in. One may also place it in another moist towel or other water, as long as they were prepared before Yom Tov. One may add water to either of these, but may not completely change the water.

№ MIVTZOIM

One should go on Mivtzoim throughout Sukkos, doing all within his power to ensure that every Jew bentches Lulav and fulfils the Mitzvah of sitting in a Sukkah.

If the person performing the Mitzvah of Sukkah or Lulav does not know the Brochos, one may recite the Brochos on behalf of a male or boy of the age of Chinuch, (or prompt him word by word), but not on behalf of a female, in which case she performs the Mitzvah without the Brochos.

Shehecheyanu is said the first time one eats in the Sukkah, even if it is after the first day of Sukkos. When making the Brocho, he should have in mind both the Yom Tov of Sukkos as well as the Mitzvah of eating in the Sukkah.

Shehecheyanu is said the first time one bentches Lulav, even if it is after the first day of Sukkos.

When visiting a hospital or an old age home, one should be mindful whether the environment is suitable for reciting the Brochos (e.g. no unpleasant odours or soiled surroundings). If it is unsuitable, the Mitzvah is performed without making the Brocho.

An Esrog remains Kosher if discolouration occurs due to frequent Mitzvah use. As mentioned earlier, the Lulav usually remains Kosher if the central leaf split. One should be far more concerned with ensuring that those without Daled Minim fulfil the Mitzvah – this is the truest beauty! It is also the most appropriate way to actualize the unity symbolized by the Daled Minim.

FIRST DAY OF SUKKOS

The Mitzvah of V'Samechta B'Chagecha requires one to celebrate Yom Tov with his family. As such, one should not overly prolong the time he spends at any communal Kiddush or Farbrengen.

It is preferable to avoid starting a full meal once the tenth Halachic hour of the day begins (see local calendar), in order to properly enjoy the Yom Tov meal of the second night.

One may not perform any preparations on the first day for the second night and day of Yom Toy.

SECOND NIGHT OF SUKKOS

On the second night, the candles should be kindled with a pre-existing flame, and not before Tzeis Hakochavim (see local calendar). The Brochos are L'Hadlik Ner Shel Yom Tov and Shehechevanu.

Maariv (and Kiddush) should not begin before this time, nor should tasks and preparations required for the second night and day of Yom Tov be performed before this time.

Candles must not be waxed into place, nor the wicks twisted. When necessary, one may remove the wax from the previous night in a way that it falls directly into the bin.

See section "Candle-Lighting" for further details, and section "First two nights of Sukkos" for matters relevant to the meal.

SECOND DAY OF SUKKOS

The Brocho of Shehecheyanu is not recited on the Daled Minim.

At the conclusion of Yom Tov (see local calendar), Havdallah is recited (without Besomim and candles) followed by Leishev Basukkah.

YA'ALEH VEYAVO IN DAVENING

If one forgets Ya'aleh Veyavo in davening, but remembers before saying Hashem's name at the end of Hamachazir Shechinasoi L'tziyon, he goes back. If he remembered between the conclusion of that Brocho and Modim, he recites it at that point, without going back. If he remembers any time after that point, but before the second Yih'yu L'ratzon (at the end of Elokai N'tzor), he returns to the beginning of Retzei. If he remembers after that, Shmoneh Esrei is repeated.

If one is unsure whether he recited Ya'aleh Veyavo, Shmoneh Esrei is repeated.

If one forgot Ya'aleh Veyavo during Shacharis, and only realised after Musaf, he does not repeat Shacharis.

If one forgot Ya'aleh Veyavo during Mincha or Maariv, and only realized after the Zman Tefillah has passed, he must recite an additional Shmoneh Esrei in the next Tefillah, as compensation. Between the two Tefillos, he should wait the span of time to walk four Amos (approx. two metres), and preferably, he should recite words of supplication between them.

CHOL HAMOIED

Each night of Chol Hamoied, one should take part in Simchas Beis Hashoeva celebrations. These should be enhanced with music.

During Chol Hamoied, one replaces the Hadassim and Aravos as necessary.

One should be aware of the state of his Aravas. If most leaves fall off the top three Tefachim (24cm), the Aravah needs to be replaced. [It often happens that the leaves have already fallen off and are merely being held in place by the Lulav rings. This renders the Aravah invalid, and it must be replaced.] A leaf is considered intact even if only its majority is intact.

The Aravos are still acceptable if the leaves have turned a darker colour.

When new Aravos are necessary, they should not be inserted into the Lulav without loosening the rings first, as this will likely cause the Aravah leaves to become detached.

On Chol Hamoied:

- One wears Shabbos clothing.
- One washes for bread, eats meat and drinks (a revi'is of) wine every day.
- One allocates more time for learning.

In association with Yom Tov, the Rebbe urged all to participate in a Kinus Torah.

Many activities are prohibited during Chol Hamoied, including (but not limited to) business activity, trade, moving homes, gardening, sewing, laundering (unless for children who soil their clothing frequently, but only as required), preparing food for after Yom Tov, cutting nails (unless it was done on Erev Sukkos as well) and taking haircuts. One may not instruct a non-Jew to perform these activities for him either.

For the sake of Chol Hamoied or the last days of Yom Tov, one may professionally repair any item which is directly involved in food preparation (e.g. oven or fridge), or which provides direct benefit to the body (e.g. the plumbing, electricity or air-conditioning), provided that it wasn't practical to fix before Yom Tov (e.g. it broke on Yom Tov).

One should avoid writing. If it cannot be deferred until after Chol Hamoied, one should write with a Shinui. However, calligraphy and artistic drawing or painting are prohibited.

Unless needed for Yom Tov, one should not shop for utensils, appliances or clothing. [One may be lenient if the item is significantly discounted and cannot be purchased later for a similar price.]

If an employee's job involves activities that are not performed on Chol Hamoied, he should arrange to take leave, unless his absence will jeopardise his employment.

Routine medical exams that can easily wait should not be scheduled for Chol Hamoied.

One who goes fruit-picking or fishing on Chol Hamoied may only collect that which will be used during the remainder of Chol Hamoied or on the last days of Yom Tov.

EREV SHABBOS CHOL HAMOIED

An Eruv Chatzeiros should be arranged if it is needed to carry between one's home and the Sukkah on Shabbos.

The Daled Minim are Muktzeh on Shabbos, so they should be put away in a suitable place beforehand.

The candles are lit at the usual eighteen minutes before sunset (see local calendar), and certainly not after sunset (see local calendar). The Brocho is recited as per a regular Shabbos.

Since the candles cannot be moved on Shabbos, the candles may be lit in the Sukkah and the husband may move it back into the house after a short while (before Shabbos begins), preferably to a place where they can be seen from the Sukkah. One should ensure that practical benefit is derived from them after nightfall.

It is common for tables in the Sukkah to be moved around. Therefore, if the Shabbos candles will remain on a Sukkah table, one should place Challos on that table from candle-lighting until Tzeis Hakochavim (see local calendar) to prevent the table becoming a "Bossis", in which case it may not be moved on Shabbos.

Pasach Eliyahu is said before Mincha, but not Hoidu

SHABBOS CHOL HAMOIED

Kabbolas Shabbos begins with Mizmor L'Dovid and not with L'chu Neranenah. In Lecho Dodi, B'Simcha U'vetzahala is recited. The Shmoneh Esrei is the usual one for Shabbos, with Ya'aleh Veyavo added. After Shmoneh Esrei, the usual Shabbos selections are recited — Vayechulu, the Brocho of Me'ein Sheva and Mizmor L'Dovid.

The custom of avoiding Kiddush between the sixth and seventh hour on Friday night applies even when it falls on Sukkos.

Shalom Aleichem and Eishes Chayil (as well as all the other selections prior to Kiddush) are recited in an undertone.

Kiddush is recited as on a regular Shabbos, with Leishev Basukkah added at the end.

It would appear that Azamer Bishvachin is not recited, even though it is Friday night.

The householder leads the Mezuman, as it is Friday night.

In bentching, both Retzei and Ya'aleh Veyavo are recited, as well as both the Horachamon for Shahhas and Sukkas

At Shacharis, the Shmoneh Esrei is the usual one for Shabbos, with Ya'aleh Vevayo added.

Hallel is recited (see section "Hallel" for relevant Halachos), but not Hosha'anos.

Before Musaf, Yekum Purkan is recited as on a regular Shabbos. All the additional Shabbos selections are recited in the Musaf of Sholosh Regolim. If one did not make any mention of Shabbos in the middle Brocho, or if he mistakenly davened the regular Musaf of Shabbos: If he did not yet say the second Yih'yu L'ratzon (at the end of the passage of Elokai N'tzor), he should return to the beginning of the middle Brocho (i.e. Atoh Vechartonu). Otherwise, he must repeat Musaf.

The paragraph Vlakachta Soiles is recited before the Shesh Zechiros.

For the daytime Kiddush, everything prior to Kiddush is recited in an undertone. One should remember to recite Leishev Basukkah before drinking the wine.

Shabbos ends at (see local calendar). Vihi Noam and V'atah Kaddosh are not recited on Motzei Shabbos.

Havdallah is recited as on every Motzei Shabbos (with Besomim and candles), followed by Leishev Basukkah. V'Yiten Lecha is recited in an undertone. A Melave Malka meal is conducted, as per every Motzei Shabbos.

On Sunday, one recites the Hosha'anos for both the fifth and sixth days, but circles only for the sixth.

See separate Halacha Guide for laws and customs of Hoshanah Rabbah, Shmini Atzeres, Simchas Torah and Shabbos Breishis.
