Reminders for Yom Kippur 5787

[May not be posted on any website or WhatsApp group without written consent from the author]

Wishing you all a Gmar Chasima Tova and may we merit to see the Kohain Gadol in Kodesh Hakodoshim THIS YEAR!!

Rabbi Levi Y. Garelik
Rabbigarelik@Sichos.online

Please post this on the refrigerator or another central location.

- * Experience has shown that it is best if both husband and wife (and children...) review this each day thoroughly so that miscommunications and last-minute panics can be avoided, and Yom Tov can truly be celebrated joyfully.
- * All the sources are in the Hebrew section of the Reminders.
- * Important note: It has been stressed many times, that these are "Reminders" to be able to see things "at a glance" and they are not a compilation of Halocho.

Since there several Halochois that require elaboration, the format of the "Reminders" has been kept, the additional details are included at the end of this document, in the "Laws and customs" by Rabbi Lesches, with his permission. They include:

KAPPAROS - EREV YOM KIPPUR MORNING - MIKVAH AND MINCHA - HALACHOS OF VIDUI - SEUDAH HAMAFSEKES – YOM KIPPUR PREPARATIONS - LATE AFTERNOON & CANDLE-LIGHTING – FASTING - OTHER RESTRICTIONS OF YOM KIPPUR – CHILDREN - KOL NIDREI & MAARIV - SHMONEH ESREI ON YOM KIPPUR - END OF MAARIV & KRIAS SHMA - YOM KIPPUR MORNING – SHACHARIS – MUSAF - MINCHA & NEILAH - MOTZEI YOM KIPPUR- DAVENING WITHOUT A MINYAN - GOTT'S NOMMEN.

- * At the end of the document there is also a table of Zmanim/times for Yom Tov for the NY area.

Things to be taken care of (or bought) before Erev Yom Kippur, especially this year, as Yom Kippur is on Monday:

1. Pregnant or nursing women (or someone who is ill ל"ע) or anyone who is on a medication that must be taken every day and may have a Shaila regarding fasting, PLEASE DO NOT WAIT FOR THE LAST MINUTE TO ASK A SHAILA..... as many times the Rov may require certain details to be checked with the doctor etc. This is especially relevant this year as Yom Kippur is on a Monday, and many doctors are not in their offices on Sunday...
2. On our website there is a page with instructions for nursing mothers etc.
3. Help in the home: Women who have a hard time fasting, and especially those with children around the house, should (together with their husband) arrange for adequate assistance for the day of Yom Kippur. It is better for them to stay home and rest rather than go to shul and get tired etc. Remember: Fasting is a Mitzva from the Torah, going to Shul is not...
4. Tashlich: Can be done during עשרת ימי תשובה for those who did not do it on ראש השנה, preferably (this year) on Vov Tishrei.
5. Shoes for Yom Kippur: Ensure beforehand that everyone in the household (small children included) have non-leather shoes for Yom Kippur.
6. Kittel: Ensure that the father has a Kittel to wear. (The first year after one's wedding a Kittel is not worn).
7. Kaporos: Arrange when and where it will be done with the whole family.
8. Lekach: Buy or bake honey cake - Lekach for ערב יום כיפור.

9. 2-4 (or more) Yahrtzeit Candles: Buy at least two [or three-four] Yahrtzeit candles as follows:
1. One to light at home on Erev Yom Kippur to be used for Havdala (at the end of Yom Kippur) which is called "Ner Sheshovas" (meaning it should be lit from יום כיפור until יום כיפור – be sure it lasts at least 26-7 hours).
 2. A second candle to take to shul - for those who have the minhag to light a לעבדיקע ליכט in shul (by the gabbai).
 3. And a third (or more) candle(s) - for those who light a candle for a parent who has passed away ר"ל, which is called נר נשמה - one for each parent etc. [The Rebbe used to light several candles – possibly for all those for whom the Rebbe said Kadish].
10. Honey: Ensure that there is honey in the house for dipping the Challah on Erev and Motzoei Yom Kippur and Sukkos.
11. Kreplach: Prepare Kreplach for the Seudah on יום כיפור.
12. Coins for Tzedaka: Prepare coins that should be given to Tzedaka on יום כיפור before Mincha.
13. Foods for Erev Yom Kippur: Buy the appropriate foods for יום כיפור (see below).
14. Foods for the Seudah on Motzoei Yom Kippur which should be eaten in "abundance" בהרבה.
15. Sukkah: Start making the necessary arrangements for the Sukkah because you have to start working on the Sukkah on Motzoei Yom Kippur.

Sunday – Erev Yom Kippur

Order of the Day (for the father) at a glance: Kaporos, Mikvah (first time), Shacharis, ask for Lekach, First Seudah (before Chatzos), Mikvah (second time), Tzedako, Mincha (with חטא), second Seudah (Hamafsekes), Blessing the children, Mikvah (third time) [The last three items may be done in a different order, according to the local possibility], go to Shul for נדר.

- * Kaporos: Early in the morning we do "Kaporos".
- * Mikva: For the first of three Tvilos of the day.
- * In Shacharis: We do not say Tachanun, nor מזמור לתורה.
- * Betzibur: Even in the years when the Rebbe would Daven in privacy (during the weekdays), on Erev Yom Kippur the Rebbe would Daven with the Tzibur.
- * Shabbos Clothing: The Rabbeim would wear their Shabbos clothing on Erev Yom Kippur.

During the day Erev Yom Kippur

- * Tzedaka: It is customary to increase in the amount of Tzedaka that is given throughout the day, especially before Mincha. Tzedaka should also be given in the form of coins (because they make "noise", and the Baal Shem Tov said that the noise of the coins dispels the קליפות).
- * Lekach: We ask for Lekach and eat from it. The Rebbe would stand for several hours distributing Lekach by the door of Cheder Hayechidus while wearing his silk Shabbos-Kapote and Gartel and wishing everyone a "Shono Tova Umesuka". Therefore, in many places, the Minhag is, that the Rov or the Gabbai or the Mashpia distributes Lekach to the whole congregation, and a father (or mother) to the family etc.
- * First Seudah (meal): Before Chatzos (midday). See below which foods are eaten.
- * Appeasing friends: The Alter Rebbe writes in his Shulchon Oruch (סימן תר"ו): Yom Kippur does not atone for sins between a man and his fellow until he has appeased that person... Yom Kippur atones only for sins between man and Hashem... for this reason on the day before Yom Kippur everyone should conscientiously appease every individual whom he has wronged, even if he merely angered someone verbally... (see all the details in Shulchon Oruch).

Foods that are eaten/not eaten on Erev Yom Kippur

- * Garlic, eggs and sesame: should not be eaten.
- * Dairy products: In the morning, it is permissible to eat dairy products.
- * During the day we eat two Seudois; the challah is dipped in honey, (salt is also placed on the table), and Kreplach. We eat the amount of two days. (even someone who is not going to be fasting).

- * In the first Seudah (before Chatzos): we also eat fish, chicken, soup, tzimmes etc.
- * At the second Seuda (סעודת המפסקת) we eat light foods such as soup (see note¹), chicken etc. The foods should be without salt. We do not eat seasoned foods.

Preparations for Mincha Erev Yom Kippur

- * Schedule Mincha at an earlier time, in order to manage to do Malkos, Mikvah, Mincha with Al Chet, and Seuda Hamafsekes, Birchas Habonim and again Mikvah etc. all before the time of Candle Lighting.
- * Bigdei Shabbos: Many have the custom to wear Shabbos/Yom tov clothing from Mincha onwards.
- * Malkos: For the men. The recipient of the 39 Malkos bends over towards north and his back to the south. Together they say Vehu Rachum three times. See all the details in Laws and Customs.
- * Second (and most important) *Tvila: for the men. (One Toivels at least 3 times)

Mincha Erev Yom Kippur

- * Tzedoko: as mentioned above (in coins etc.). The Rebbe would come in to Mincha with a big envelope full of coins and place coins into the various trays and boxes of Tzedoko.
- * Al Chet: Towards the end of the Amida, after the first Yihyu Leretzoin, we recite Al Chet. (It starts at the "Elokeinu" before "Oshamnu" until the end of the Amidah).
 1. If one forgot to say Al Chet and finished the Amidah, he says Al Chet but does not have to repeat the Amida.
 2. If one is in middle of Al Chet he may respond to Kedusha and Kadish etc. like he is in middle of Birchois Krias Shma. See more details in Laws and Customs.
 3. If one is repeating the Amida because he said Hokeil Hakodosh etc. he does not have to repeat the Al Chet.
- * After the *Amida: Tachanun is not recited nor Ovinu Malkeinu.
- * The Rebbe's *Brocho: After Mincha the Rebbe would give a Brocho to the whole of Klal Yisroel.
- * Second Seuda (Hamafskes): see above what is eaten at this Seuda.
- * Birchas Habonim: After the Seuda Hamafsekes the father blesses the children. See below in number 6.
- * Tvila: Third Tvila of the day for the men.
- * [Seudah Hamafsekes/Birchas Habonim and Tevila may be done in the reversed order. Every place should do according to the circumstances].
- * Arrange for things to be brought to *Shul: The women who daven in shul on Yom Kippur should arrange how their Machzorim will be brought to Shul as they may not carry (in a place where there is no Eiruv) after lighting candles.

Before Yom Tov begins

1. Tablecloth: Ascertain that there is a white tablecloth on the table just like Shabbos and Yom Tov.
2. Medications: If anyone needs to take medications, and it is possible to take them before Lighting the candles, they should do so.
3. "Ner Sheshovas": Light the Yahrtzeit Licht ("Ner Sheshovas"), and ensure that it is not put out, for it needs to be lit until Motzo'ei Yom Kippur for Havdolo.
4. "Ner Neshomo": Those that also light a Yahrtzeit Licht for each parent who has passed away, which is called נר נשמה, should also light it now.
5. Shoes: Put on the "Yom Kippur shoes".
6. Birchas Habonim: The father blesses the children with ברכת הבנים והבנות. Many do it while wearing their Tallis and Kittel as the Rebbe would Bentch the Bochurim. If, for whatever reason, the father is not home, the mother may Bentch the children. [The Rebbe used to Bentch the Bochurim with the Nusach of Birchas Kohanim [from וידבר until אברכם] and then added more Brochois].

¹ The Friediker Rebbe said that His father (the Rebbe Rashab) told him to eat some soup, then add another ladle and then add another ladle because you are supposed to eat "3 bowls", and by doing it in the above manner you accomplish this.

7. Take to shul: The father should remember to take the Tallis, Kittel, Gartel, Machzor(im) and "לעבדיקע ליכט" to Shul.
8. Check the pockets: If the father wore the Shabbos/Yom Tov Kappote during the day, he should check the pockets to make sure they are empty as you are not allowed to carry outside on Yom Kippur.

Lighting candles Erev Yom Kippur

- * Tzedaka is given.
- * The candles are lit 18 (or 23) minutes before sunset - see your local calendar (for the times in NY – see last page). If one did not light the candles at the right time, it is prohibited to light them after sunset, just like Erev Shabbos.
- * Two Brachos are recited: שהחיינו and להדליק נר של יום הכיפורים. If one forgot to say the Brocho of Shehecheyonu she may recite it after Kol Nidrei. If she concluded the Brocho incorrectly – see the Laws and Customs.

On Yom Kippur

- * Concerning the prohibition of doing Melachos, the laws on Yom Kippur are just as Shabbos.
- * Additionally, one may not eat, drink, wear leather shoes, wash up (even in cold water), use perfume (even deodorants), oils or ointments.

Kol Nidrei and Maariv

- * Married men put on the Kittel (if they are married more than a year), the Gartel, then the Talis with a Brocho, before the Shkia (sundown). If it got too late and it's after Shkia, they still put on the Talis but without a Brocho.
[* One does not go to the restroom while wearing the Kittel.]
- * For all the details regarding the Davening, with a Minyan or in private, kindly see the Laws and Customs. Here are some of the most commonly relevant details:
- * Before Kol Nidrei (by Shkia time):
 1. We recite the 9 Perakim of Tehillim (see Machzor).
 2. We recite the "על חטא".
- * Then we recite Kol Nidrei. (One who Davens in private also recites Kol Nidrei.)
- * Those who said the Bracha of Shehecheyanu when lighting candles, should not recite the Bracha of Shehecheyanu (again) in Maariv right after Kol Nidrei. It is a Mitzva to publicize this.
- * After Kol Nidrei, Maariv begins from "Shir Hamaalos".
- * In the Shema - "Boruch Shem kvod Malchuso Leolom Voed" is said out loud.
- * In the Amidah:
 - If one forgot ובספר וכתוב, מי כמוך, זכרנו, – if they remember before they say "Hashem" (of ה' אתה ברוך that concludes that Brocho) the additional phrases are then said. If one remembers after saying Hashem's name, one does not go back.
 - If one said הא-ל הקדוש (or isn't sure) and immediately remembered - correctly say המלך הקדוש.
 - If one said הא-ל הקדוש (or isn't sure) and remembered a little bit after (after כדי דיבור - the time frame it takes to say three words), or already began to say בחרתנו אתה, he returns to the beginning of the Amidah.
 - If one said "הא-ל" and did not yet say "הקדוש" one can correct himself and say המלך הקדוש.
 - If one said "המלך הקדוש" and forgot to say "לדור ודור וכי" one does not need to go back, and continues Davening.
 - If one is unsure if he said המלך הקדוש but he did say the paragraphs of לדור ודור etc. it is assumed that he said המלך הקדוש.
- * After Maariv, the Rebbe would stay in Shul and say the whole Tehillim with the Tzibur.

Before going to sleep

1. Krias Shema before going to sleep is recited like on Shabbos and Yom Tov and the "Boruch Shem Kvod Malchuso Leolom Voed" is said out loud.
2. Tehillim: Before going to sleep we say the 9 chapters of Tehillim (see Machzor).
3. Neggel Vasser: When preparing the Neggel Vasser prepare with less water since in the morning we wash our hands only until the knuckles.

During the Day of Yom Kippur

- * Netilas Yoda'im in the morning and after using the bathroom - one washes his hands only until the knuckles [besides for Kohanim who, seemingly, wash as usual].
- * After drying the hands with a towel, one should wipe his eyes with it. If the eyes are still soiled, they may be washed with water, but only as much water needed to clean the eyes (and not more).
- * [It is forbidden to go to the Mikva on Yom Kippur].
- * In the morning Brochois we do not recite the Brocho "שעשה לי כל צרכי" (until tomorrow morning).
- * In Krias Shma that we recite in morning after "Ma Tovu" we recite the "Boruch Shem kvod Malchuso Leolom Voed" out loud.
- * Children (or those that are ill r"l) that will eat, see the details in "The Laws and Customs".
- * Yizkor: Is recited before Musaf.
 1. Those who are unable to go to Shul for Yizkor may recite it at home.
 2. Mourners, in their first year, stay inside the Shul for Yizkor but they do not recite it.
 3. If they are in their 13th month and it is still before the Yahrzeit, they recite Yizkor.
- * Birchas Kohanim: Towards the end of Musaf is Birchas Kohanim. [Seemingly, the Leviim wash their own hands until their knuckles but the hands of the Kohanim are washed as usual].

Motzo'ei Yom Kippur

Maariv

1. Maariv is recited while wearing the Kittel and a hat (not just a Yarmulke) and the Tallis is on the shoulders.
 2. We say אתה חוננתנו.
 3. If one said "זכרנו לחיים מלך חפץ בחיים" and did not yet say "וכתבנו", he should immediately say "מלך עוזר" and continue with the Amida. However, if one already said "וכתבנו" then he should finish the Amida and then repeat it as a נדבה.
 4. If one said "המלך הקדוש" or "המלך המשפט", the Amida does not have to be said again.
 5. We do not recite Vihi Noam nor Veato Kodoish.
- * Someone who doesn't Daven Maariv, has to say "Boruch Hamavdil Bein Koidesh Lechol" before doing any Melocho.
 - * Women who cannot wait for their husbands for Havdolo, may recite it themselves (on Grape juice etc.), see below.

After Maariv

- * We wish one another Gut Yom Tov.
- * Netilas Yoda'im: we wash our hands as is done in the morning, without a Bracha (also the Kohanim that washed regular in the morning and for Birchas Kohanim, wash their hands now).
- * Kidush Levono: One may then wash up, put on leather shoes, and say Kiddush Levono.

Havdalah

1. Is recited while wearing a Talis and Kittel (and hat).
2. Have the "Ner Sheshovas" (the candle that has been lit throughout Yom Kippur) close to the place where Havdolo will be recited. [The custom is to take an additional candle and light it from the Ner Sheshovas, and to use both together for בורא מאורי האש].
3. We recite from הנה א-ל יסועתי, and make the Bracha on the wine.
4. We do not use (nor make a Brocho on) the Besamim.

5. For the Brocho of "בורא מאורי האש" we use the candle that has been lit throughout Yom Kippur ("Ner Sheshovas") as explained above in # 2.
6. ויתן לך is not recited.

* By the Seuda after the fast, the Challah is dipped in honey, (and salt is also placed on the table) and the meal is served בהרבה (in abundance).

* Sukkah: One should begin to work on the Sukkah, or at least discuss it.

* Tachanun: We do not recite Tachanun till the end of the month of Tishrei.

11 Tishrei, the day after Yom Kippur

* This day is called "ג-טס נאמען" ("G-tts Nomen" - G-d's name). See Sefer Haminhogim page 59 for the explanation.

- To be continued –

Wishing you all a Gmar Chasima Tova and may we merit to see the Kohain Gadol in Kodesh Hakodoshim THIS YEAR!!

🕊️ KAPPAROS

Kapparos is performed during the last third of the night. If this is not possible, one may perform Kapparos any time during Aseres Y'mei Teshuvah, as close to Erev Yom Kippur as possible.

Kapparos is performed with white chickens. [Nevertheless, one should not noticeably go out of his way specifically to obtain white chickens.]

Kapparos should not be shared unless there is no other alternative. A male uses a male chicken, and a female uses a female chicken.

A pregnant woman (at least forty days after conception) uses one male and two female chickens, and recites: Eilu chalifaseinu, eilu t'muraseinu, eilu kapparaseinu, eilu hatarnegolim yeilchu l'misah, va'anachnu neillich l'chayim tovim aruchim ul'shalom.

It is preferable to be present when the chicken is shechted. If the chicken was not shechted properly, Kapparos is performed again. If it was shechted properly but the chicken was a Treifah, Kapparos need not be repeated.

One should cover the blood, but only with the Shoichet's consent. The Brocho ends "Al Kissui Dom BeOfor" [אֵל קִסּוּי דּוֹם בְּעוֹפָר]. The blood should be fully covered.

One should not think that Kapparos itself atones for one's sins. Rather, the intention is that a sinner deserves what is being done to the chicken. These thoughts arouse one to Teshuvah.

Kapparos chickens or their value should be donated to a Tzedakah cause.

Ma'aser money may not be used for one's own Kapparos or that of a dependent.

In the absence of a chicken, another animal should be substituted, and in the absence of that, one can use live fish. [All the objectives of Kapparos are achieved only with a chicken, but at least some of its aims are still attained with other livestock.] After Kapparos, these should not go to waste, but be used for human consumption.

As a last resort, Kapparos can be performed with money. [Many sources substitute the words "Zeh Hakesef Yelech Litzdakah." However, a publication produced by Kehos in 1944 contains the words "Eilu Hama'os Teilachna Litzdakah".]

🕊️ EREV YOM KIPPUR MORNING

One goes to Mikvah three times throughout the day: before Shacharis, before Mincha, and after the Seudah Hamafsek.

Tachnun is not said from the morning of Erev Yom Kippur until after Rosh Chodesh Cheshvan.

Shacharis is not davened at length.

Mizmor Lesodah is not recited during Shacharis.

Avinu Malkeinu is not recited during Shacharis and Mincha.

Yom Kippur does not atone for wrongs committed against others unless one first obtains their forgiveness. Therefore, Erev Yom Kippur is an appropriate time for one to resolutely forgive all who wronged him in the past.

It is customary to ask for Iekach (honey cake) from another person, and to eat it.

It is a Mitzvah to eat and drink on Erev Yom Kippur. Ideally, one eats an amount equivalent to two days' worth of food. [Needless to say, it is forbidden to fast.] This applies even to one exempt from fasting on Yom Kippur.

A Bris should be held earlier in the morning, so that the Seudah will not interfere with the two meals eaten later in the day.

For both meals, it is customary to set the table and serve a meal on par with Shabbos and Yom Tov. The meals begin with round Challah (dipped in honey), but there is no need for Lechem Mishneh.

The first meal takes place sometime before Mincha. One eats only foods that are easily digested, such as chicken and fish, as opposed to meat. Sesame seeds should not be eaten, and men should not eat garlic and eggs.

It is customary to eat Kreplach today.

🕊️ MIKVAH AND MINCHA

Malkus is administered with a leather belt (preferably made from a calf's hide). The person receiving Malkus leans in a kneeling position to the north. Thirty-nine lashes are administered lightly: one on the right shoulder, one on the left shoulder, and one lower between the shoulders. This sequence is then repeated. Both the one giving Malkus and the one receiving it say "Vehu Rachum" three times, one word per lash.

After Malkus, one immerses in the Mikvah, dipping (at least) three times.

It is our custom to drop many coins into Tzedakah boxes as one makes his way to Mincha. The Baal Shem Tov says that the clanging of the coins scatters the Kelippos.

Mincha is davened at length and with feelings of Teshuvah. It is scheduled early enough to leave ample time for the Seudah Hamafsek.

The full Vidui is recited right after the first Yih'yu L'ratzon at the end of Shmoneh Esrei. Vidui is not recited in the Chazzan's repetition of Mincha.

🕊️ HALACHOS OF VIDUI

During Vidui, one stands without leaning on anything, and bows forward slightly (similar to Modim).

One beats his chest with his fist at each word of Ashamnu, at each Al Cheit (and Al Chatoim), and at the words Slach Lonu, Mechol Lonu, Kapper Lonu.

[The word אָלוֹהִים is pronounced with the ה' sounded after the last vowel, i.e. Eloi-ah.]

When reciting Vidui in the quiet Shmoneh Esrei, one responds as he normally would in Elokai Netzor. [If the Chazzan recites Kedushah, one responds Kodosh, Boruch and Yimloch. When the Chazzan says Hamelech Hakodosh and Shomea Tefillah, one answers Omein. When the Chazzan says Modim, one answers the three words Modim Anachnu Loch. When the Chazzan recites Kaddish, one answers Omein Y'hei Shmei etc, and Omein to d'amiran b'olmo. One also answers Omein when the Brochos are recited before and after an Aliyah or Haftarah.]

If one forgot Vidui in Shmoneh Esrei, he should recite it afterwards.

One who is not davening with a Minyan, or at all (due to illness), should nevertheless recite Vidui throughout Yom Kippur the same number of times it is said in Shule. This applies to women as well.

One may not speak when the congregation recites Vidui during Chazaras Hashatz.

🕯 SEUDAH HAMAFSEKES

The meal begins with round Challah (dipped in honey). Aside from the food mentioned earlier, one avoids dairy foods, salty and spicy foods, and alcoholic beverages.

Before bentching, one should verbally stipulate that he might still eat or drink again before the fast begins. [If one neglected to do so, it is still permissible to eat and drink before the fast.]

🕯 YOM KIPPUR PREPARATIONS

One goes to Mikvah after the Seudah Hamafsek, making sure to finish well before Yom Kippur begins.

One ensures that the house is prepared for Yom Kippur as before every Shabbos and Yom Tov. The table should be covered with a tablecloth, the beds should be made, and the floor swept.

One wears Shabbos clothing. [Some are accustomed to change before Mincha, or already in the morning.] Women should minimize their jewellery.

One should not set up an urn of hot water (or put up any other hot foods in a pot or crockpot) solely for Motzei Yom Kippur.

🕯 LATE AFTERNOON & CANDLE-LIGHTING

One dons his Kittel and Tallis before sunset (see local calendar). The Brocho on the Tallis is recited (unless the sun has already set).

A Chosson in the first year of his marriage does not wear a Kittel on Yom Kippur.

The Kittel, like a Tallis and Gartel, may not be worn in the bathroom.

After donning the Tallis and Kittel, one performs Birchas Habonim. One places his hands on the head of each child and recites the entire Birchas Kohanim from Vayedaber until Va'ani Avorachem. (One may add any Brocho of his own.)

Each married man lights (preferably in Shule) a "Lebbedige Licht" that burns for 26 hours. A 26-hour "Ner Neshama" is also lit for one's departed parents. A pre-existing flame should be prepared at home for Havdallah.

Married couples should keep a light on in the bedroom.

Candle-lighting time is (see local calendar).

The first Brocho is L'Hadlik Ner Shel Yom Hakippurim. [If one concluded the Brocho incorrectly but realized within the time frame it takes to say three words, she corrects her mistake. Otherwise, she must repeat the correct Brocho if she initially said Shel Shabbos Kodesh, but not if she said Shel Yom Tov.]

The second Brocho is Shehecheyanu. [If it was forgotten, she should recite it at the conclusion of Kol Nidrei, or as soon as she remembers after that.]

The one who lights candles may no longer perform Melacha. Arrangements should be made for that person's Machzor to be brought to Shule. [If a woman will need to drive to Shule after candle-lighting, she should consult a Rav for the most appropriate option in her circumstances.]

Men and women should not eat after candle-lighting time. [One should take all medications beforehand.]

If one accepts Yom Kippur any time after Plag Hamincha, he may no longer eat or perform Melacha, and all the other restrictions of Yom Kippur apply – the exception being that leather shoes may still be worn.

The Shule should be well lit in honour of Yom Kippur.

🕯 FASTING

All must fast, including Baalei Habris (i.e. the Mohel, the Sandek, and the father of the baby). Pregnant and nursing mothers are required to fast.

One who mistakenly ate during the fast must immediately resume fasting.

Fasting is the most important aspect of Yom Kippur and takes precedence over going to Shule and reciting the Tefillos. One who might not be able to complete the fast if they go to Shule should stay at home. [If necessary, a husband should facilitate his wife's fasting by going home during the break to help out with the children. If necessary, he should do so even during davening, or arrange help.]

The ill or elderly, a woman who recently gave birth, or a pregnant or nursing woman who feels excessive weakness, should consult a Rav. A Rav should also be consulted regarding medicines.

One who is exempt from fasting does not make Kiddush or eat Lechem Mishneh. [It is simpler to avoid bread, as there are many particulars regarding washing for bread and bentching on Yom Kippur.]

One may touch food, but may not engage in its preparation, in case he forgets and eats it. Therefore, one should not prepare food for children and those exempt from fasting unless they cannot do so themselves. One who normally washes his hands before handling food may do so on Yom Kippur.

When a Bris occurs on Yom Kippur, the Seudah takes place at night, after the fast.

[The actual Bris takes place before Musaf. Since no one can drink the wine, a drop is given to the baby who is having the Bris.]

🕯 OTHER RESTRICTIONS OF Y"K

- It is prohibited to wear footwear containing any leather. It is appropriate to avoid wooden clogs. One may wear all non-leather footwear, including crocs. Although not a requirement, it is ideal to avoid standing barefoot on leather pillows or couches etc.
- It is prohibited to go to Mikvah, bathe or wash any part of the body – even in cold water. One may not even wipe himself with a cloth that is damp enough to moisten what it touches. One may rinse if necessary for medical, therapeutic or pain-relief purposes. One may also rinse soiled areas, but only as necessary. Similarly, one may wash his hands up to the knuckles after exiting the restroom or touching an area of the body that is normally covered. One may also rinse his hands in the usual manner before and during food preparation. A Kallah who has been married for fewer than thirty days may wash her face if necessary.
- It is prohibited to apply makeup, ointment, lotions, deodorants, perfumes or creams. One may apply an ointment (or sanitizer) for medical, therapeutic or pain-relief purposes (provided it is a type that does not involve the prohibition of smearing, as with thick lotions).
- It is prohibited to brush one's teeth or rinse one's mouth, even if the liquid is completely expelled.

All married couples must keep Harchakos (even during the day).

🕯 CHILDREN

Children below Bar/Bas Mitzvah need not fast. However, they should not eat excessively.

From the age of nine (or ten if the child has a weak constitution), children are trained to fast at night and for several hours during the day, as per the child's abilities. A child below that age should not skip any meals.

All the other prohibitions of Yom Kippur (i.e. leather footwear, bathing and anointing) apply to children of all ages. Therefore, an adult may not encourage or assist a child in any of these activities, or make them accessible to the child.

Children who perform any of these activities of their own volition need not be corrected if younger than nine. If older than nine, the father is obligated to correct their behaviour and must also prevent them from eating during the hours when they should be fasting.

🕊️ KOL NIDREI & MAARIV

Before Kol Nidrei, one recites the entire Vidui individually, followed by nine Kapitlach of Tehillim, as set out in the Machzor. [The Rebbe often encouraged the Nigun of Avinu Malkeinu before the nine Kapitlach of Tehillim.]

At least three Sifrei Torah are taken out and held near the Chazzan. [If a Shule has only one Sefer Torah, at least two people should still stand near the Chazzan.]

The Chazzan recites Kol Nidrei three times, each time raising his voice more than the previous time.

Each congregant stands and recites Kol Nidrei with the Chazzan word by word, quietly but audibly enough so that it may be heard by those nearby.

The Chazzan recites V'nislach all three times before the congregation does.

One should begin Shehecheyanu quietly with the Chazzan, but hasten to finish before him in order to answer Omein. One who said Shehecheyanu when lighting candles does not repeat it here.

One does not kiss the Tzitzis of his Tallis during Shema.

🕊️ SHMONEH ESREI ON YOM KIPPUR

On Yom Kippur, the third Brocho of Shmoneh Esrei has a long addition beginning with the words L'Dor V'dor. If one omitted this addition, he may go back to recite it only if he realised before saying Hashem's name at the end of the third Brocho. Otherwise, he continues Shmoneh Esrei without going back, as long as he is sure that he concluded the Brocho with the words Hamelech Hakodosh.

If one recited the unique Yom Kippur Nusach of the third Brocho, but is unsure whether he concluded the Brocho with the words Hamelech Hakodosh, he may assume that he did so correctly.

One who did not say Hamelech Hakodosh: If he realized before he began the next Brocho and within the time frame it takes to say three words, he corrects his mistake. Otherwise, he must repeat Shmoneh Esrei. [The same applies if this occurs in Chazaras Hashatz, in which case Kedushah is recited again.]

If one mistakenly omitted any of the other four additions (Zochreinu, Mi Chomocha, u'Chsov, u'Vsefer Chaim), he may recite it at the place he remembers, provided he has not yet said Hashem's name at the end of that Brocho. Otherwise, he continues Shmoneh Esrei and does not go back.

During Chazaras Hashatz, the congregation recites the selections of u'Chsov and u'Vsefer Chaim aloud before the Chazzan.

🕊️ END OF MAARIV & KRIAS SHEMA

Avinu Malkeinu: It is not our custom to recite it verse by verse after the Chazzan. The words Roia Gzar are recited without pausing in between.

L'Dovid Mizmor: It is not our custom to open the Aron Hakodesh, nor to recite it verse by verse after the Chazzan.

It is customary to recite the entire Tehillim with a Minyan after Maariv.

One should be sure to derive benefit from the candles at some point after nightfall (e.g. when returning from Shule).

Krias Shema before bed is recited as on Shabbos and Yom Tov. Boruch Shem is recited aloud. One should remember to recite the nine Kapitlach of Tehillim before Hamapil, as set out in the Machzor.

When going to bed, a man should not cover himself warmly. At the very least, he should leave his feet uncovered.

🕊️ YOM KIPPUR MORNING

One washes Neggel Vasser only up to the knuckles. [Tip: Prepare the Neggel Vasser in a slightly different way as a reminder not to wash one's hands in the usual manner.] One should not derive enjoyment from washing his hands.

One wipes his eyes with the towel moistened by his hands. One who rinses the flakes from his eyes every morning may do so on Yom Kippur morning too.

After getting dressed, one washes Neggel Vasser again – with a Brocho – only up to the knuckles. [However, Kohanim wash their hands up to the wrists, as usual.]

The Brocho of Sheoso Li Kol Tzorki is omitted until the following morning.

🕊️ SHACHARIS

Preferably, when putting on the Tallis, one should intend that the Brocho also applies to putting on the Tallis again after the break, before Mincha (assuming the break does not last more than several hours).

The Chazzanim should familiarize themselves in advance with the meaning of all of the Piyuttim and Tefillos – even if they already did so the previous year.

Similarly, one should train his children regarding the correct order of davening beforehand, in order to minimize distractions during davening.

Shir Hamaalos (after Yishtabach): It is not our custom to open the Aron Hakodesh, nor to recite it verse by verse after the Chazzan.

When the Aron Hakodesh is opened during Chazaras Hashatz, it is not obligatory to stand, since the Sefer Torah is not being moved. Some have the custom to stand. [The Rebbe was not particular to stand, except for Ho'aderes V'hoemunah and L'e-l Orech Din.]

At Shacharis, the paragraph of Misoid (at the beginning of Chazaras Hashatz) and the one that follows are recited by the Chazzan and not by the congregation.

One must complete the daily quota of 100 Brochos. As there is no eating and drinking on Yom Kippur, one must find other ways to meet this quota, such as by concentrating on the Brochos that are recited during Krias Hatorah and Haftorah, or by reciting Besomim over fragrant spices. [One may not make a second Brocho on fragrant spices unless a sufficient amount of time has elapsed for his attention to have been diverted.]

It is customary to grant an Aliyah to the Ba'al Musaf unless he is being paid. [Payment must be structured in a manner that avoids the prohibition of S'char Shabbos.]

🕊️ MUSAF

Yizkor is recited before Musaf. Those who leave the Shule for Yizkor may recite "Av Harachamim" after Yizkor if they wish to.

Ideally, Musaf should begin before Mincha Gedolah (see local calendar).

Since the Chazzan cannot move out of his place to bow at Aleinu and during the Avodah, he stands at a distance from the Shtender, to allow space to bow.

The paragraph of Misoid (beginning of Chazaras Hashatz) is recited by the Chazzan and not by the congregation.

One should stand for u'Nesane Toikef.

The Chazzan recites the entire Aleinu out loud. The congregation quietly recites it word for word with him, bowing at V'Anachnu Korim, and continuing until Hu Elokenu Ein Oid. At that point, they begin saying the Pesukim of Atoch Horayso, as printed in the Machzor. The subsequent paragraph (beginning Oichilah) is recited by the Chazzan only.

When one bows, his head should reach all the way to the ground. One may not bow directly on a stone floor, but rather, should prepare mats upon which to bow. [Mats are not needed when bowing on a floor covering of any other type.]

The Chazzan must keep his feet together during Shmoneh Esrei. He should therefore be helped up after bowing.

Kohanim wash their hands up to the wrists before Duchenen.

One stands during the three (of the four) recitations of V'hakohanim that require bowing.

Musaf is followed by a break of at least 45 minutes (if possible).

🕯️ MINCHA & NEILAH

After the break, one does not make a Brocho when putting his Tallis on again, unless the break lasted more than several hours.

Neilah begins shortly before sunset.

One should be mindful of all the textual changes in Neilah (such as Chosmeinu instead of Kosveinu).

Napoleon's March is sung right before the Shofar is sounded.

The Shofar is sounded after the fast ends (see local calendar).

🕯️ MOTZEI YOM KIPPUR

One should extend Yom Kippur by at least several minutes. The time during which Maariv is davened suffices for this purpose. After that, all prohibitions of Yom Kippur cease. Even so, one may not eat until after Havdallah. [As the fast extends beyond 25 hours, it is effectively considered a 26-hour fast.]

Maariv is davened with a Tallis, but not over the head. Instead, one wears a hat. Havdallah is recited in a similar fashion.

Vihy Noam and V'atah Kaddosh are not recited.

Everyone – including Kohanim who already washed their hands before Birchas Kohanim – should wash Netilas Yadayim up to the wrists, without a Brocho, and rinse their mouth. This should be done as soon as possible after Maariv, and certainly before Kiddush Levanah or breaking the fast.

Kiddush Levanah is recited if the moon is visible. Ideally, one first changes into leather shoes and rinses his face, unless this will negate his participation in a Minyan.

We greet one another with "Gut Yom Tov".

For Havdallah, Besomim is not used. One uses a candle that was burning from before Yom Kippur, together with another candle which he lights from the first. [If one does not have a pre-existing flame from before Yom Kippur, the Brocho is omitted.]

Although we usually don't distribute Havdallah wine to the listeners, this may be done on Motzei Yom Kippur.

A man who has already heard Havdallah may recite it again for another man or for a boy over the age of Chinuch if they don't know how to recite it themselves. However, a man should not recite it again for a woman. Therefore, a man should not be Yotzei with Havdallah in Shule if women at home are relying on him to recite it for them.

A woman may make Havdallah herself in order to eat.

If the "Lebedige Licht" was extinguished on Yom Kippur, one should relight it on Motzei Yom Kippur and let it burn until all its wax is consumed. One should also resolve to ensure the same in all subsequent years.

The table is set, candles are lit, and a full Yom Tov meal is eaten, beginning with round Challah (dipped in honey). The Rebbe Rashab states that an expansive meal draws down Gashmiyus for the whole year.

On Motzei Yom Kippur, we start building the Sukkah, or at least speak about the Sukkah.

🕯️ DAVENING WITHOUT A MINYAN

Vidui: One who is not davening with a Minyan must still recite Vidui throughout Yom Kippur the same number of times as in Shule. He will therefore need to recite it during the quiet Shmoneh Esrei, and again afterwards, corresponding to the times it is normally recited in the Chazzan's repetition (or in Selichos during Maariv). This applies to both men and women.

Kol Nidrei: Where possible, Kol Nidrei should be recited together with at least three men. In the absence of that, Kol Nidrei should still be recited individually.

Selichos: One who davens without a Minyan should still recite the Selichos and Tefillos that appear before and after Vidui. In Maariv, these appear after Shmoneh Esrei. For the rest of the Tefillos, these appear in the Chazzan's repetition.

Yud Gimel Midos (in Maariv and Neilah): A person who davens without a Minyan should omit the Yud Gimel Midos Harachamim.

Piyuttim: When one davens without a Minyan, there is technically no obligation to recite the Piyuttim that appear in the Chazzan's repetition, but it is certainly appropriate to do so. They may not be said during one's personal Shmoneh Esrei, but may be recited afterwards. Most Piyuttim are said in their entirety by both the Chazzan and congregation, and that is how the individual would recite them as well. [Although parts of Piyuttim are often marked as "Chazzan" and "Kohol" in the Machzor, this is only in order to highlight which parts the Chazzan says aloud.] Exceptions: A non-Chazzan does not say the paragraph of Misoid that appears at the beginning of Chazaras Hashatz, nor the paragraph that follows it in Shacharis.

Krias Hatorah: When one davens alone because there is no local Minyan, it is appropriate to read Krias Hatorah in private (ideally between Shacharis and Musaf).

Daily quota of 100 Brochos: As there is no eating or drinking on Yom Kippur, one way to meet this quota is by concentrating on the Brochos that are recited during Krias Hatorah and Haftorah. For those who are not davening with a Minyan, this is not an option, and one should be extra attentive to find other ways to meet this quota, such as by reciting Besomim over fragrant spices. [One may not make a second Brocho on fragrant spices unless a sufficient amount of time has elapsed for his attention to have been diverted.]

Tallis after the break: Someone who davens without a Minyan is likely to have a longer break than usual. After the break, one does not make a Brocho when putting his Tallis back on, unless the break lasted more than "several hours". While the exact definition of "several hours" is unclear, it is understood to be no less than three hours. It is therefore appropriate to ensure that no more than three hours elapse without wearing a Tallis. If one's break is longer, he can put it on for a few minutes in the middle.

Shofar at the fast's conclusion: This is not obligatory, so one who does not have a Shofar does not need to go out of his way to hear it.

Kiddush Levanah: There is a Halachic advantage to reciting Kiddush Levanah after Havdallah and a quick bite. This was not stated earlier because doing so will generally negate one's participation in a Minyan for Kiddush Levanah, or lead one to forget it entirely. However, someone at home may wish to consider doing so if these concerns do not apply.

🕯️ GOTT'S NOMMEN

The day after Yom Kippur is called "B'Shem Hashem" or "Gott's Nommen", and we go to Shule early in the morning for Shacharis.

The days between Yom Kippur and Sukkos are days of joy, for the Mizbeach in the first Beis Hamikdash was inaugurated then. Aside from a Chosson and Kallah on their wedding day, one may not fast.
